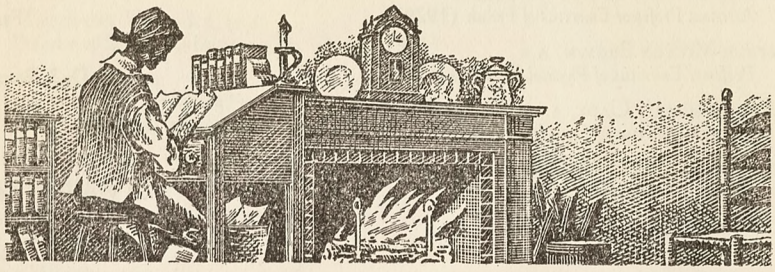
THE COLLEGE



MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE was an indigenous product of 19th century democracy, financed from the thin purses of local citizens, and expressive of multiform culture brought from southern New England.

A miller, two lawyers, a doctor, and a President of Yale University conceived the first plan for Middlebury College on the night of September 30, 1798. The miller was Gamaliel Painter, whose name the oldest college building in Vermont still bears; the lawyers, Seth Storrs, donor of the campus of the men's college, and Samuel Miller who entertained the group at this original meeting; the doctor, Darius Matthews, a probate judge as well as physician; and the Yale President, the great Timothy Dwight.

Some thirty log cabins and frame houses, surrounded by wilderness, comprised the settlement at Middlebury in 1798. No road had yet been built to the pioneer village. The State of Vermont as a part of the Union was only seven years old and its Legislature still roved from town to town for its annual meeting. Grist and saw mills, a few shops for mechanics and blacksmiths, a rough inn and a brewery offered the principal commercial accent to the village. A church had not even been constructed. Still the establishment of a college, as well as a grammar school, seemed imperative to these immigrants from Connecticut.

President Dwight, in his visit of a single night, helped to outline a plan for procedure, but it took two years to persuade the Legislature that the request for founding a college in this wilderness should be honored. A charter was finally granted on November 1, 1800, and Jeremiah Atwater, a Yale graduate, appointed President; seven students were admitted the following day and Middlebury was under way, lodged in a building just completed for the Addison County Grammar School. President Atwater and one tutor comprised the entire administrative and teaching staff. Under them the first student was graduated in August, 1802.

Greek and Latin were the core of the curriculum in those early years. Mathematics—ranging from "vulgar arithmetic" to trigonometry—history, geography, natural philosophy, astronomy, rhetoric, law, logic, metaphysics, and ethics rounded out a four-year program, with vocational purpose noted in such courses as navigation and surveying. A disciplinary system, based on the temper of the law of Moses and the text of Yale College rules and regulations, kept a student's nose to the academic grindstone. As occasion for new rules of conduct arose, they were properly phrased, and appropriate fines attached. Students were their own janitors, laid their own hearth fires, lugged their water from outdoor cisterns, often cooked their own meals. Daily chapel prayers before dawn began the day and a daily chapel service at dusk ended it.

It was distinctly a man's college. Women were not even admitted inside the rail fence which surrounded the campus protectively. Yet the village of Middlebury did not neglect the education of women. Within three years after the men's college was started, a "Female Academy," one of the first in America, was established here; and it was in Middlebury that Emma Hart (Willard) opened her first school for girls and wrote what has been called the Magna Carta for higher education of women. Although the College did not become coeducational for over eighty years after it was founded, the tradition for women's education was strongly fixed at an early date. In spite of repeated earlier appeals, women were not admitted until 1883, after the alumni had petitioned for the change. Joseph Battell gave the College the land for the women's campus in 1909.

The Middlebury College Summer Language Schools of English, French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish, which began with a German session in 1915, have achieved international reputation. The foreign language schools were pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages under a faculty of native instructors. The Bread Loaf School of English and the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference have served as models for similar undertakings in various parts of the country. In 1949, the Graduate School of French in France was inaugurated, followed by the Graduate School of Spanish in Spain in 1951.

EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE

Middlebury is democratic in spirit, cosmopolitan in outlook. It has intentionally remained small in size. It has never had denominational affiliation, but respects and fosters the traditions of Christian faith and moral principles.

The College has adapted the traditional liberal arts thesis to modern education and the curriculum is organized to provide students with a comprehensive and balanced knowledge of the sciences and the arts, language and literature, history and philosphy, social, political, and economic institutions. A three-fold academic program is required of each student: intensive work in one field of planned study; the investigation of other subjects as they relate to this field of concentration; the study of cultural courses to give breadth and perspective. Participation in some organized physical activity is required of all freshman and sophomore men and women.

As a liberal arts college, Middlebury has no vocational or professional schools. The College recognizes, however, that its responsibilities to society as well as to its graduates involve all possible preparation for some adult field of service. All departments provide adequate preparation for graduate study. Faculty advisers give fully of their time in aiding students to a wise arrangement of studies which may lead to the development of mind and personality as well as toward some particular field of service.

Students wishing specialized and advanced training as well as a liberal education may shorten the period of formal education under the Technical and Professional School Plans, as described on page 40.

Middlebury College is accredited by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Vermont State Department of Education.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE AND PLACEMENT

The Placement Office of Middlebury College provides a central source of information on employment for both undergraduates and graduates. Here are filed college credentials, the record of graduate work and further training, and of first and subsequent positions, together with references from teachers and employers.

Opportunities are given to the students to meet representatives of various vocations and professions and to learn of openings and requirements in their fields of interest. Vocational guidance is offered through suggestions as to the career most suitable for particular abilities and the most appropriate academic preparation. The Occupational Library in the Placement Office assembles recent publications on a wide variety of fields.

Business and educational work are major occupations among the alumni. Leading fields among the men are: Medicine, Law, Ministry, Engineering, Banking, Insurance, Manufacturing, Personnel, Accounting, Agriculture, Chemistry, Government and Public Service, Advertising, Publicity, and Journalism. Leading alumnae occupations, beside Education and Business are: Library work, Social work, Medicine, Government and Public Service, Technology, Dietetics, Music, Publicity and Public Relations. Many alumni gladly provide vocational advice for undergraduates.

Middlebury has always sent its full share of teachers into the public and private schools. A special program of guidance for prospective teachers has been organized for the purpose of helping them throughout their college careers to develop as fully as possible those qualities, personal as well as scholarly and professional, which are most to be desired in effective teachers. (See page 80). Middlebury is one of a group of liberal arts colleges which cooperate with Harvard University in giving prospective teachers at the secondary and elementary school levels a fifth year of study at Harvard leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Teaching or Master of Education.

R.O.T.C.

The Department of Military Science and Tactics offers courses in Military Subjects under the Army General Military Science curriculum. The College requires the successful completion of the two-year Basic Course for all qualified men students as a prerequisite for graduation. The two-year Advanced Course is optional for all students who are selected. Credits count toward graduation as in any other course. The Military Department aims to prepare students for a commission in the Regular Army and the Army Reserve. See Page 100.

LOCATION

Middlebury College is located on a broad hill overlooking a typical Vermont village and a wide sweep of Champlain Valley, with the Green Mountains visible to the east and the Adirondacks to the west. Most of the permanent college buildings are constructed of grey limestone or white marble, their colonial architecture consistent with the mountain setting of the extensive campus.

The campus consists of about 250 acres for buildings, athletic grounds, and Otter Creek shoreline, and a mountain campus ten miles to the east. The United States Government has taken over the title to an adjacent area, formerly owned by the College, as part of the Green Mountain National Forest. Both tracts are used by students for outings, winter sports, and week-end trips to lodges.

Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile will go via the N. Y. Central to Albany, N. Y.; or via the Boston and Maine to Bellows Falls, Vt.; or via the Vt. Central to Essex Junction (Burlington); and make bus connections on the Vermont Transit Lines to Middlebury. Bus time-tables will be supplied on request. There is also scheduled airplane service to Rutland and Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Colonial Air Lines. There is at present no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

BUILDINGS

Administration Building. The Old Chapel, built of grey limestone in 1836, and for years used as the chief recitation hall, was completely remodeled in 1941 and turned over to administrative offices. Here are located the Old Chapel Room and the offices of the President, the Vice President, the Deans, the Directors of Admission, the Registrar, the Business Manager, the Bursar, the Controller of Accounts, the Secretary of the Language Schools, and the Editor of Publications.

Atwater House is a three-story white frame dormitory on a tree-shaded street close to the campus, with accommodations for twenty students. It is the headquarters of the Atwater Club.

Battell Halls The North and South sections of this dormitory for women were completed and opened in September 1950; the center section in February 1955. They are located on the approach to the Château, and east of Pearsons Hall. They are constructed of grey limestone and house two hundred fifty women.

Carr Hall, located on College Street east of Forest Hall, was completed in January 1951. It is a two-story grey limestone building and was constructed in memory of Reid Langdon Carr, '01, a former Trustee. The building contains rooms and a large studio for the use of the Fine Arts Department; and classrooms and offices for other College Departments. The Flanders Ballad Collection is also located here.

The Casa Española, under the direction of a Spanish-speaking person, is a dormitory for women who agree to speak only Spanish in the house.

The Château. Middlebury College was a pioneer in the plan of the segregated language house, where the residents use the foreign language exclusively while in the building. Le Château, built in 1925, one of the oldest and still the largest "maison française" in the United States, is the center of the internationally known French School, in session both winter and summer. Its architecture was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. Le Château contains two fine salons, a library, classrooms, offices, a dining room, and dormitory rooms.

Chemistry Building. The Department of Chemistry has its own three-story marble building. In the basement are organic, photographic, and research laboratories, and general storerooms. Lecture rooms are on the first floor; three laboratories, the library of 4,000 volumes, a stock room, and balance rooms are on the second floor; and on the top floor are located general chemical and private laboratories and a lecture room.

Forest Hall was constructed of grey limestone in 1936 and contains sixty-three double suites of two rooms and connecting lavatory; attractive reception rooms and dining rooms. It was built with funds derived from the sale of a large acreage of mountain forest to the federal government.

Gifford Hall, a five-story grey limestone dormitory overlooking the campus, was the memorial gift of the late Mrs. James M. Gifford, widow of a long-time trustee of the College. It was first opened in the fall of 1940.

Hepburn Hall, opened in 1916 as the gift of A. Barton Hepburn, '71, is a five-story dormitory of brown tapestry brick on one of the highest points of the campus.

Hillcrest is a three-story white frame building, housing the offices, laboratories and listening rooms of the Foreign Language Division.

Hillside Cottage, on the approach to the Chateau, was built in 1913, and houses the College Infirmary, maintained by the College for the care of women students. One of two resident nurses is always in attendance.

Homestead, the Home Management House on Weybridge Street, is a typical New England home, the interior of which has been remodelled so that it admirably meets the needs of Home Economics 35.1.

Mead Memorial Chapel. This colonial white marble structure of the New England meeting house type, the gift of Ex-Governor John A. Mead, '64, stands on the highest eminence of the campus and the light which shines nightly from its spire is a county landmark. Across its facade are chiseled the words "The Strength of the Hills is His Also." The chancel has accommodations for a vested student choir and contains a large pipe organ. In the tower is a carillon of eleven bells which are played daily by a student from 5:30 to 6:00 while the College is in session. The small Sunderland Memorial Chapel is used for private devotion and special services.

Munroe Hall. Many of the departments have their classrooms and offices in Munroe Hall, the gift of Charles A. Munroe, '96, a former trustee. Opened in February, 1941, the interior is completely modern in every detail while the exterior of gray limestone and marble trim conforms with the general colonial architecture of the older buildings.

Music Studio. This brick building of colonial design is the gift of Mrs. Emily Proctor Telfer, and houses the studios of the faculty, and rooms for instrumental and vocal practice as well as a larger studio with special listening equipment. The Library contains about 500 scores and 2,500 recordings.

The Observatory opened in 1937, has a revolving dome and a mounted machine-driven Newtonian type 12-inch reflecting telescope, which maintains an unobstructed view of the skies.

Painter Hall, built in 1815, is the oldest college building in Vermont, and a fine example of sturdy New England architecture. It bears the name of a founder and first benefactor of the College. The interior was completely remodelled in 1936, and is now a dormitory for men.

Pearsons Hall, a marble dormitory of colonial design which commands a view of both the Adirondacks and the Green Mountains, was opened in 1911.

Porter Hospital, a fireproof brick building with a beautiful view of the Green Mountains, was completed in 1925, the gift of William H. Porter to the College, for use by the College and the residents of Addison County. It has a 45-bed capacity and modern equipment, with graduate nurses always on duty and a resident surgeon and local physicians on call.

Recitation Hall, near Forest Hall, now houses the laboratories of the Home Economics Department; and the offices of the Alumni and Alumnae Secretaries and the Placement Bureau.

Starr Hall erected in 1861 to complete "Old Stone Row"—Painter, Old Chapel, and Starr—was rebuilt four years later after a fire. It was completely remodelled in 1946. There are double suites of study and bedroom and a few single rooms.

Stewart Hall, built in 1956, is a modern fire-proof dormitory of Vermont limestone containing accommodations for 152 men in double rooms and an apartment for the faculty resident. Located on the upper campus south of Hepburn Hall, it enjoys attractive views of both the Green Mountains and Adirondacks. It is named in recognition of the Stewart family's long history of service to Middlebury College.

Student Union, a building secured through the Federal Works Agency and opened in September 1947, contains student lounges, student offices, a bookstore, snack bar, College Print Shop, offices of the Chaplain, the Director of Food Service, and other facilities.

Voter House, on College Street, next to the Casa, is the former home of the late Prof. Perley Voter, head of the Chemistry Dept. from 1912–1953. It is now a dormitory for women.

Warner Science Hall. The lecture rooms, laboratories, and libraries of Biology, Physics, Geology, Geography and Drafting, are quartered in Warner Science Hall, built in 1901 through the benefactions of Ezra J. Warner, '61, as a memorial to his father, once a trustee of the College. The Natural History Museum on the upper floors houses a large collection of fossils of Vermont and the Champlain Valley, and a complete series of the flowering plants and ferns of the region. The Physics department possesses experimental equipment outstanding in a small college. A modern greenhouse has been added to the equipment of the courses in botany.

Willard House (formerly Battell Cottage) was opened in 1909 and was later enlarged to provide a dining hall accommodating about one hundred and fifty women.

Wright Memorial Theatre, a new drama and speech center, will be completed in 1957. Designed to conform with the general colonial architecture of the campus the new building includes a 400 seat auditorium, a drama workshop, rehearsal rooms, debate rooms, class rooms and faculty offices. The building is named to honor Charles Baker Wright, Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature at Middlebury from 1885–1920.

Athletic Facilities. The World War II Memorial Field House, completed in the spring of 1949, is a building 400 feet by 120 feet, located on South Main Street, adjacent to Porter Field and the Fred D. Lang Memorial Field. Accommodations in this building provide for large assemblies, dances, an indoor skating rink with artificial ice (the only one in Vermont), a regulation and practice basketball courts, a field cage, badminton, tennis, and volley ball courts, and rooms for offices, lockers, showers, exercise, teams, equipment and trainers. The headquarters, offices, rifle range and supply rooms of the R.O.T.C. unit are also located here.

Since the completion of the Field House, the McCullough Gymnasium has been assigned to the Women's Physical Education Department. It is of marble in colonial style, and was dedicated in 1912. It contains a basketball court, a lecture room, offices, locker room and showers, a modern dance studio and other facilities.

The Porter Athletic Field of about eighty acres contains a quarter-mile cinder track, a baseball diamond, the football field, a grandstand and bleachers.

The Fred Davis Lang Memorial Field, situated east of the Memorial Field House, consists of approximately four acres of playing fields available for intramural sports.

Nine outdoor tennis courts are located on the campus, and the women's campus also includes an archery range and one soccer field. The mountain campus includes the Middlebury College Snow Bowl containing an eight-mile cross-country ski trail, a 3085 foot Poma ski lift, six slalom and downhill trails and slopes, cabins, a new base building, and two jumps. The ski lift is the first installed by any college in the country and the 50 meter Gignac Memorial jump is the largest collegiate jump in this country.

THE LIBRARY

It is the aim of the Library to provide as effectively as possible for the intellectual needs of students and faculty, to encourage recreational reading, and to stimulate a love of good books.

Built in 1900 of six kinds of Vermont marble with funds bequeathed by Egbert Starr, the Library's capacity was more than doubled in 1938 by the addition of two wings given by his son, Dr. M. Allen Starr. The collection numbers about 125,000 volumes in all fields of knowledge, plus about 82,000 government documents. Especially noteworthy are the large sections in foreign languages: French, German, Italian, Russian and Spanish. The Library regularly receives over 475 newspapers and periodicals. In addition to the main stacks to which the students have free access, there are also reference, periodicals, and reserve rooms and the Middleburiana and local history collections. During the college year, the Library is open daily, and every evening except Saturday. In addition, the Library serves the five Summer Language Schools on the campus, as well as the School of English and the Writers' Conference at Bread Loaf.

The Abernethy Library, built around the nucleus of rare books bequeathed by Dr. Julian W. Abernethy and comprising one of the best collections of American literature in the country, is housed in the east wing of the building. It contains some 7,500 volumes in first edition and about 1,000 manuscripts, mainly autograph letters of American authors. The room, furnished by Frank D. Abernethy, brother of the donor, serves the double function of treasure room and quiet haven for reading and study.

Specialized collections of the Library's books are also housed in the Chemistry Building, Warner Science Hall, Carr Hall, Le Château, and the Music Studio.

Helen Hartness Flanders Collection

Another collection unique in its field is the Helen Hartness Flanders Collection of over 9500 New England items, including Child Ballads, ballads and folk songs of British and American origin, religious songs, fiddle-tunes and call-sets which have been recovered through oral transmission. There are about 4400 mechanical recordings. Its library contains rare books, broadsides, chap-books, manuscripts, books on folklore as well as American and British regional collections and current folk song journals. The Collection is housed in Carr Hall.

RESIDENCE HALLS

Middlebury is a residential college. All single men live in the dormitories or fraternity houses; all women live in the dormitories.

Reservations are made by upperclassmen during the spring for the following year, and an advance deposit of $10 is required at the time the room contract is prepared. This room deposit fee is not refundable but will be applied on the student's semester bill should he for any approved reason not occupy the room at the beginning of the fall term. Students reserving rooms are responsible for the year's rental charge, unless a period of one semester is approved at the time the room contract is signed. All rooms are assigned subject to dormitory regulations, and the terms of the room contract; and occupants are liable for any damage to the dormitory and its furnishings. A student may be required to withdraw from a dormitory at any time for failure to respect college dormitory regulations or quiet hours, and forfeit the room charge for the remainder of the semester. The Superintendent of Dormitory Housekeeping or a duly designated representative of the college has the right to inspect rooms at any time.

Rooms are ready for occupancy in September on the day preceding the first college exercises and, except for seniors, are vacated in June on the day following the student's last final examination. Dormitories are closed during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Spring vacations, and students may not have access to rooms during these periods.

Men's Residences. Gifford and Stewart Halls each accommodate 150 men; preference in choice of rooms is given to students in order of classes. Hepburn, Painter and Starr Halls, reserved for freshmen, accommodate a total of 225 men; the Atwater House accommodates twenty; and the fraternity houses together accommodate approximately 190. Freshmen are not permitted to reside or dine in fraternity houses. Dormitory rooms are furnished with single or double-deck beds, mattresses, desks, dressers, and chairs. Bedding, pillows, and other accessories are furnished by the occupants. Because of limited floor space, no additional furniture may be moved into dormitory rooms without first obtaining authorization from the Superintendent of Dormitory Housekeeping. Room fees include heat and electricity, and maid service once a week. Students provide their own laundry service.

Student proctors in each section of a dormitory report to the Director of Men's Residences, and represent the interests of both students and administration in matters concerning dormitory life.

Men students during their first year of attendance are required to dine in the College Commons at Gifford or Hepburn Halls. Other students may dine at the Commons, at fraternity houses, or at restaurants in town.

Women's Residences Each of the dormitories for undergraduate women is under the supervision of a house director. Houses vary in size from Forest Hall, accommodating over a hundred students, to the Homestead, for eight Home Economics majors. Fees for room and board are uniformly $340. per semester. Rent includes heat, light and limited maid and janitor service. All rooms are furnished with single bed, pillow, mattress, study table, chiffonier or dresser, and chair for each student. Students provide their own bed linen and towels and provide for their laundering.

Women's dormitories include Forest Hall, Pearsons Hall, the Château, the Casa Española, the Homestead, Voter House, Battell North, Center, and South. The Château and the Casa Española may accept qualified freshmen who are interested in acquiring facility in spoken French or Spanish.

DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The long range Development Program of Middlebury College was inaugurated in October 1954. Its basic objective is to attract the necessary additional financial resources to provide for the College an adequate staff of high quality, better faculty salaries and the physical facilities and equipment needed to maintain our high educational standards. Much has already been accomplished. Nine instructors have been added to the faculty since the Program has been under way. The new center section of Battell Halls women's dormitory was completed and occupied in 1955. All women students are now residing on the campus. A new men's dormitory, Stewart Hall, is being completed and will be ready for occupancy in September of 1957. With its completion all men students will reside on the campus or in fraternity houses.

An audio-laboratory has been created for the Foreign Language Division. An artificial ice rink has been built in the Field House. A ski lift has been added to the Snow Bowl and a ski lodge building has been begun. A modern greenhouse has been added to the equipment of the Biology Department. Construction of Wright Memorial Theatre is under way so that the much needed Theatre Arts Center will soon be available to replace the old Playhouse which was destroyed by fire. The next important physical need is an expansion of Starr Library whose book stacks and study facilities are no longer adequate for a student body of 1250.

Middlebury College has never been university-minded. Through more than a century and a half, the Corporation and the Faculty have agreed that it should be a small college. The quality of a college is of far greater importance than its size. Middlebury considers it essential that all features bear their optimum relation to the enrollment: faculty and staff, curriculum, buildings, and equipment.

Over its long history of educational service to the nation, Middlebury has been fortunate in having a number of its graduates and friends endow professorships at the College. Many of these, established in an earlier era, no longer produce sufficient income to fulfill their purpose. Many more are needed. The endowment of a professorship is probably the finest and most rewarding contribution which can be made to a college. The necessary fund for such an endowment would be $200,000. Gifts in smaller amounts will also be welcomed for the endowment of various departments for the purchase of books and instructional equipment. The endowed professorships currently established at Middlebury and the dates of their founding are as follows:

The Burr Professorship of Chemistry and Natural History (1829)
The John C. Baldwin Professorship of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy (1866)
The Levi P. Morton Professorship of Latin and French (1886–87)
The Beman Professorship of Mathematics (1893)
The James B. Jermain Professorship of Political Economy (1901)
The A. Barton Hepburn Women's Professorship (1908)

The George Nye and Anne Walker Boardman Professorship of Mental and Moral Science (1908)
The Paige-Wright Professorship of Economics (1913)
The Fletcher D. Proctor Professorship of American History (1918)
The Henry Norman Hudson Professorship of English (1920)
The A. Barton Hepburn Professorship of Economics (1922)
The John G. McCullough Professorship of Chemistry (1924)
The Julian W. Abernethy Professorship of American Literature (1933)
The Albert D. Mead Professorship of Biology (1949)
The George Adams Ellis Professorship of Liberal Arts (1956)

The Administration will be happy to discuss any of its future plans with friends of the College. Forms of bequest for endowment, general and specific purposes are as follows:

Forms of Bequest

The corporate title of Middlebury College is "The President and Fellows of Middlebury College."

The following forms are suggested:

GENERAL: "I give and bequeath to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College, a corporation of the State of Vermont, located at Middlebury, Vermont, the sum of————————for the uses and purposes of the said Corporation."

ENDOWMENT: "I give and bequeath to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College, a corporation of the State of Vermont, located at Middlebury, Vermont, the sum of————————to be added to the General Endowment of the said Corporation."

FOR A SPECIFIC PURPOSE: "I give and bequeath to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College, a corporation of the State of Vermont, located at Middlebury, Vermont, the sum of————————to be used for the purposes of————————to be known as the————————Fund. If at any time, in the judgment of the Trustees of the said Corporation, the need of income for such purpose no longer exists, the Trustees of the said Corporation shall be, and hereby are, authorized to use the income from the Fund for such purpose as shall in their judgment promote the interests of the College."

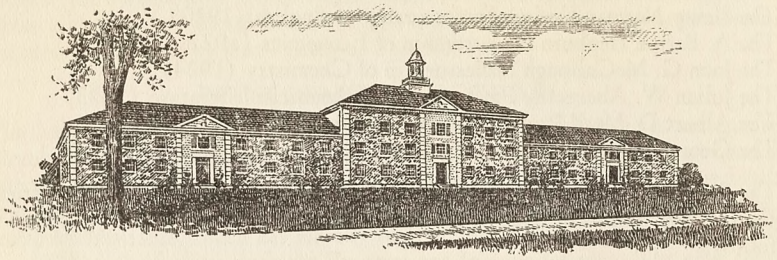
COLLEGE LIFE



The college furnishes each student with a pamphlet of regulations containing detailed information as to enrollment, attendance, scholarship, examinations, athletics, and student activities. All students are held responsible for a thorough knowledge of and compliance with these regulations. As part of their training in the development of personal responsibility, all students are held responsible for keeping their parents correctly and currently informed regarding their standing and progress in college.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time students whose conduct or academic standing it regards as undesirable—without assigning any further reason therefore; in such cases, the fees which are due or which may have been paid in advance to the College will not be refunded or remitted, in whole or in part, and neither the College nor any of its officers shall be under any liability whatsoever for such exclusion.

FRESHMAN WEEK

Directly preceding the opening of the fall semester, there is a three-day period of orientation to assist Freshmen in their adjustments to the college community. The program includes an informal assembly, registration, receptions and social gatherings, lectures by members of the college personnel, and placement tests. Each student is assigned to a faculty counselor. Freshmen are also assisted by upperclass student advisers. (See page 38)

CHAPEL SERVICES

There has always been an active Chapel program at Middlebury College. During the week there are a number of services conducted by the Chaplain, faculty members, and students. Undergraduates are required to attend one of these services a week.

Sunday Vespers are held at 5:00 P.M. The sermons are preached by visiting clergymen, members of the faculty and the Chaplain. Among those who occupied the pulpit during 1956–1957 were Professor E. W. Muehl of Yale Divinity School, Dr. Will Herberg of Drew University, Canon John Pyle of New York, Dr. Roy Stuart Lee of Oxford, England, and Professor Paul Lehmann of Harvard Divinity School.

In addition to the Vesper services there are special Sunday evening lectures by outstanding scholars who analyze current secular problems from a Hebrew-Christian perspective.

From time to time programs of sacred music are presented by the College Choir. Outstanding among these events last year was the performance of the "Magnificat" by Johann Sebastian Bach.

Of these services and lectures students are required to attend at least eight each semester.

HEALTH MEASURES

Under the direction of the Medical Adviser the College investigates and cares for the health of each student. Every Freshman must present before matriculation a satisfactory health certificate signed by a physician. Physical measurements and health records are filed and corrective exercises recommended when needed. All Freshmen and Sophomores who are physically able, are required to participate in organized physical activities at least two periods a week. The College reserves the right to ask the withdrawal of any student whose physical condition is not satisfactory. A student may be requested to have a thorough physical examination once a year or whenever considered necessary by the Medical Adviser or his representatives.

Porter Hospital is fully equipped for any type of case; there is a resident surgeon member of the American Board on the staff. An Infirmary is operated by the College for minor illness among the undergraduate women. A student is entitled each semester to care at either Porter Hospital or the Infirmary to the amount of $21.00. No doctors' bills or the cost of X-rays will be paid for students. For men students, the cost of a physical examination, when taken at the request of the Medical Adviser, is deductible from the $21 allowance. College nurses, under the supervision of the Medical Adviser to the College, authorize absences due to illness attested by the Hospital, a doctor, or the Infirmary.

A psychiatric consultant is a member of the college staff. Although not resident on the campus, he is available for consultation by any student. Fees for consultation and therapy are the responsibility of the student.

EXTRACURRICULAR PROGRAM

The relatively small size of the College permits participation in a variety of extracurricular activities by all undergraduates. Frequent dances, theatrical productions, sports events, debates, and week-end mountain trips, are scheduled throughout the year.

Abernethy Lecture. A writer of distinction is annually invited to address the college upon some aspect of American literature in commemoration of the birthday of Dr. Julian Willis Abernethy, the library's founder. This address is given in Mead Chapel on January 23rd or approximate date.

Concert-Lecture Series. Outstanding artists and lecturers are brought to the campus under the supervision of a faculty committee appointed for that purpose. All regularly enrolled students are admitted to these concerts and lectures without extra charge.

Many other special lectures are sponsored by the college, under special funds, or through various departments and organizations.

Conference. An annual two-day symposium is held at which outstanding authorities in the fields of the arts, literature, economics, politics, religion, and science discuss with the students problems of current significance.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Students are governed by the Undergraduate Association in which all undergraduates have a vote. There are executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the Association.

The Association controls the conduct of students in all matters of college life not under the jurisdiction of the administration. It aims to further a spirit of campus unity and to control and coordinate extracurricular activities.

The honor system, on which the women's section of the Association is organized, encourages high standards of responsibility and cooperation, and assists in maintaining the social standards of the College.

SPORTS

All regularly enrolled undergraduate men are eligible to participate in varsity sports. A student from a junior college entering the junior class or a foreign student admitted with junior status is eligible to participate in varsity sports immediately. Transfers from another four-year college are eligible after residence of one year.

Intramural games are scheduled in basketball, track, golf, tennis, relays, badminton, touch football, volleyball, hockey, softball. Skiing and Hockey are special features of the winter calendar.

The Athletic Council, composed of representatives of the alumni, faculty, and students, supervises the sports program. The College does not assume legal responsibility for the expense in caring for injuries sustained by student athletes, while training for or participating in athletic competition.

A sports program for women, under the direction of the Physical Education Department and the Women's Athletic Association, includes archery, badminton, basketball, bowling, field hockey, golf, ice skating, riding, skiing, softball, squash, tennis, volleyball, lacrosse. An intramural program is emphasized, with participation in Sports Days with other colleges.

Both colleges take part in the Annual Winter Carnival which, in thirty years since its inception, has assumed an increasingly important role in the social and sports life of the College.

A student who is on warning in two courses at the same time may no longer represent Middlebury in extracurricular activities away from the College for the duration of the period of warning and is required to curtail extracurricular activities which take time from academic work. The detailed regulations governing students on warning are stated in the Student Handbook.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student government is in the hands of the Undergraduate Association. Other administrative organizations include the Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils.

Honorary organizations on the campus are: Phi Beta Kappa, Waubanakee, Blue Key, Mortar Board, Junior Counsellors, and Sophomore Guides.

There are also athletic, musical, dramatic, literary, religious, and departmental student clubs.

Ten fraternities are represented: Alpha Sigma Psi, Alpha Tau Omega, Chi Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Delta Rho, Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Chi, and Zeta Psi; and six national sororities: Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa and Theta Chi Omega. Non-fraternity men are eligible to join the Atwater Club.

MOTOR VEHICLES

Men students are permitted to have or operate a motor vehicle only after the beginning of their junior year; women receive this permission only after the spring recess of their senior year.

PUBLICATIONS

Undergraduates of Middlebury College publish the weekly newspaper, The Middlebury Campus. Students assume complete responsibility for the editorial content of the newspaper. The Junior class publishes The Kaleidoscope, student yearbook. By vote of the students, subscriptions for both are placed on the term bills. The Middlebury Handbook, giving information about campus organizations and college regulations, is published annually through the cooperation of student editors and the College.

The Middlebury College News Letter, a quarterly magazine, is published by the College and distributed without charge to Alumni, Alumnae, and friends of the institution.

Bulletins are published eight times during the college year. Periodic numbers include catalogues of the academic year, the Language Schools, the Bread Loaf School of English, the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference, the College Directory, and the Graduate Schools of French in France and Spanish in Spain.

The Middlebury College Press, inaugurated in 1939, publishes books by men and women associated with the College and Summer Schools. Titles which currently bear its imprint include: Footpath in the Wilderness ($2.00), the only comprehensive volume about "The Long Trail" across the Green Mountain range; Bread Loaf Book of Plays ($3.00), six one-act plays edited by Hortense Moore; Stops ($1.00), an ingenious manual of punctuation contrived by the Bread Loaf Printers; Vermont Chap Book ($1.50), ten illustrated Vermont folk ballads; and three volumes in the Bread Loaf Poets series: Only on the West Wind by Florida Watts Smyth; Orpheus and the Moon Craters by Cedric Whitman; and Time Is Our House by Louisie McNeill. Not Faster than a Walk, a Vermont Journal by Dr. Viola C. White, The Concord Saunterer, by Reginald L. Cook, and the Bread Loaf Anthology are now out of print.

Copies of the books now available may be secured from the Middlebury College Press.

EXPENSES

No general statement can be made regarding the cost of a semester at Middlebury. The location of the College in a frugal Vermont countryside and the absence of metropolitan attractions permit a student to live economically. The College offers a limited number of scholarships to deserving students. The Deans endeavor to assist undergraduates in finding remunerative work both on the campus and in town.

A fairly accurate estimate of a semester's expenses may be made by selecting the applicable items from the following list of standard charges per semester:

Tuition		$450.00
Special course fees (see course descriptions)	$1.00	to 12.00
Student Activities Fee—Men and Women		7.00
Additional fixed charges for men
Room rent, including heat and electricity (limited)		140.00
Board		220.00
Additional fixed charges for women
Room and board		375.00

Payment of tuition entitles a student to not more than sixteen credits each semester; an additional charge of $30.00 per semester is made for each credit in excess of sixteen. No extra charge will be made, however, for the one credit per semester of the required basic R.O.T.C. course.

For graduate students, tuition is charged at the rate of $450.00 for a full semester program of fifteen credits, otherwise at the rate of $30.00 per credit.

A graduation fee of $11 is paid by all seniors.

A fee is $1 is charged when, on authorization of the Administration Committee, a lost student identification card is replaced.

A rebate of $5 per week may be allowed for absence from dining halls for two consecutive weeks or longer.

No refund of tuition, fees, or room rent is made for dismissal, or for absence or withdrawal save under exceptional circumstances, or upon entrance into the Armed Services through Selective Service.

Students may not take examinations, receive credits, nor expect honorable dismissal until all financial accounts are settled.

The right is reserved to change quoted charges if necessary.

The College assumes no responsibility for loss of student property through fire or theft.

Travel, textbooks, clothing, fraternity or sorority dues, and social assessments should also be considered in estimating a year's expenses.

All students will be required to pay tuition, student activities fee, board and room bills for the semester at least three days before classes begin. An itemized statement showing course fees and any additional charges will be mailed on or before December 1 for the first semester and April 1 for the second semester. These bills must be settled in full by December 15 and April 15 respectively. FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENT WHEN DUE AUTOMATICALLY CANCELS THE PRIVILEGE OF ATTENDING CLASSES and incurs liability for a late payment fine of $5.00.

The Registrar will issue a transcript of record on request to students wishing to transfer or to secure a statement of their credits for any other purpose. One copy of the college record is furnished free. A fee of one dollar will be charged for a duplicate of the transcript. In the case of students who have received scholarship aid, those who are financially indebted to the College or those who have not surrendered Identification Cards on leaving college, no transcript will be issued until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the Treasurer's office. No fee is charged for transcripts submitted to any branch of the armed service.

UNDERGRADUATE EMPLOYMENT

The College cannot guarantee employment to students and does not encourage them to enter without adequate resources. A limited number of men may expect to find such employment as waiting on tables, assisting in laboratories and offices, and tutoring. All men wishing part-time work should file an employment application in the office of the Dean of Men. However, prior to matriculation, men should address communications concerning employment to the Director of Admissions. Students wishing to serve as sales representatives in dormitories or fraternity houses must register with the undergraduate committee on concessions, and receive the approval of that committee and of the administrative officer having jurisdiction.

Women may find similar employment including dining room and kitchen service in the dormitories, house duty, caring for children, typewriting and clerical work, tutoring, and serving as Chapel monitors and campus messengers. Application should be made to the office of the Dean of Women.

Students employed by the College will be expected to apply these earnings to meet their financial obligations to the College; earnings beyond amounts due the College will be paid to the student periodically by payroll voucher.

SCHOLARSHIP AID

Middlebury College scholarships are awarded only to students who give evidence of high academic achievement, well-balanced interests, good moral character, and leadership ability. Applicants must also show that they would be unable to attend college without scholarship support. Middlebury College scholarships may be applied toward tuition only. A college scholarship is normally awarded for the academic year. In order to receive or retain a scholarship a student must have for the previous semester a minimum semester average of 75 or a minimum grade of 70 in all courses. A scholarship may also be forfeited for misconduct.

All scholarships are applied toward acquirement of a Middlebury degree. If the recipient transfers to another institution, the scholarship must be repaid in full before a transcript will be issued. Exceptions will be made for students approved for transfer to another institution under the Technical and Professional School Plans. Scholarships are awarded for amounts ranging from $100 per year to full tuition, depending on the financial need of the applicant.

Middlebury College is participating in the College Scholarship Service. Parents of all freshman scholarship applicants are expected to fill out the Parents' Confidential Statement and send it to the College Scholarship Service. Upon the written request of the parents and payment of a $1 fee for each copy, the service will forward a photographic copy of the original Statement to each College at which the student applies for financial aid. The confidential nature of the Statement will be respected. Blanks for filing the Statement should be obtained from the Admissions Office and must be returned to the College Scholarship Service by March 1 prior to the academic year for which the scholarship is requested.

In addition to the Statement filed with the College Scholarship Service, Middlebury College requires that each application be supported by letters of recommendation from three responsible professional men or women (not relatives) who are conversant with the financial background of the applicant and his family. These letters should comment specifically on the finances, character, and ability of the applicant, and should be sent directly to the Director of Admissions. Freshman scholarship applicants are expected to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test in December or January of the senior year of high school.

Correspondence concerning scholarships for freshmen should be addressed to the Director of Admissions. Upperclass students should apply to their Dean.

State Scholarships Through an annual appropriation of the Vermont Legislature, 300 scholarships of $200 each are granted to State residents attending four Vermont colleges of which Middlebury is one. The thirty Vermont senators are each privileged to award ten scholarships at their discretion to undergraduates in the different institutions. The scholarships are for one year only but may be renewed. Application should be made, preferably in the spring, to a senator from the county where the student resides. If the Senator in the applicant's county has already made all appointments, the student should inquire of the Dean regarding a vacancy in another county.

Special Vermont Scholarships. Several four-year scholarships are awarded annually to male residents of Vermont who show promise in qualities of manhood, leadership, strength of character, and scholastic attainment. The school record and personal references from the principal and from other citizens of standing in the community are considered in making the selection. All applicants (unless otherwise advised by the committee) come to Middlebury for personal interview with the committee of selection, which consists of the President, two members of the Board of Trustees, the Dean, and the Director of Admissions. The Special Vermont Scholarships are normally for full tuition, except that recipients will be expected to apply for a Vermont State Scholarship, and in cases of less financial need, a Scholarship may be given for a lesser amount. The scholarship is tenable for four consecutive years subject to continued residence in Vermont, and the maintenance of an excellent college record. Application should be made to the Director of Admissions when applying for admission.

LOAN FUNDS

To defray expenses specifically pertaining to college education, loans in moderate amounts for a limited time may be made to students through the Committee on Extensions and Loans. The applicant is required to furnish information regarding the purpose of the loan, any standing obligations to the College and to other sources, the amount of financial aid received from parents or guardian, the total earned toward yearly college expenses, and the amount of life insurance carried. Terms for repayment of loan are required, and the application must be accompanied by an endorsement of parent or guardian and a recommendation from the Dean. No loans are granted to Freshmen. Application should be made to the Dean. Funds are listed on page 106.

PRIZES

Prizes are awarded for annual public speaking and debating contests, for theses on peace and the United States Constitution, and for distinguished work in Biblical Literature, Latin, Greek, English, and History. Full details are given on pages 106–107.

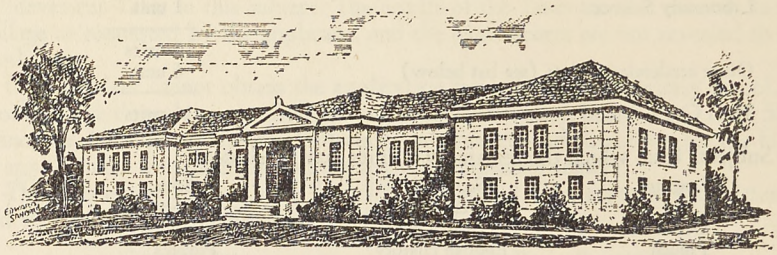
ADMISSIONS



MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE admits undergraduates for the Bachelor of Arts degree only. Normally, undergraduates are admitted only in September. The freshman class of both men and women is limited by the capacity of the dormitories and an early application is advised.

The number of applications from candidates meeting the minimum requirements below, far exceeds the number that may be accepted. Therefore, admission to Middlebury is selective. Academic ability and achievement, community citizenship and leadership, character, and personality are considered most important.

A satisfactory certificate of health must be presented before matriculation. Successful candidates are required to fill out medical blanks which are supplied by the College. No candidate is finally admitted until the preparatory record is complete and the health requirements met.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The selection of candidates is based on information obtained from the following:

the secondary school record, including rank in class
the recommendation of the school principal and teachers
the College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude and Achievement Tests a personal interview with the Director of Admissions, or with a designated representative.

Secondary School Preparation. Candidates must be graduates of approved secondary schools and are normally required to present 16 admission units in at least 12 of which the candidate must present "college certification" grades (respectively determined by each individual school). A unit represents a year's study of a subject in secondary school, the class meeting four or five times a week.

Any candidate who has questions about his preparation is urged to write to the Director of Admissions as early in the secondary school course as possible.

The required entrance unit distribution is as follows:

English (4 years)	4 units
A Foreign Language	2 units (minimum)
History	1 unit
Algebra	1 unit
Plane Geometry	1 unit
Laboratory Science	1 unit
	10 units
Other academic subjects (see list below)	6 units
Total	16 units

Subjects from which the remaining 6 units may be chosen:

Language	Social Science	Science
Latin	Ancient History	Mathematics
Greek	European History	Chemistry
French	English History	Physics
German	American History	Biology
Italian	Social Studies	Physical Geography
Spanish	Problems of Democracy	Botany
Russian	Economics	Zoology
	Sociology
	World History
	Modern History

With the approval of the Committee on Admissions, other academic subjects commonly offered in secondary schools may be substituted for not more than two of the elective subjects listed above. A candidate should submit a syllabus for each course he wishes to substitute. General Science is not accepted as satisfying the laboratory science requirement. Credit may be allowed for it as an elective if an acceptable laboratory science course is also offered.

Candidates interested in mathematics, chemistry, physics, or economics should present three years of mathematics (elementary and intermediate algebra, and plane geometry). Candidates contemplating a major in English or a foreign language would benefit by taking three years of Latin.

Effective with the Class of 1961 (freshmen entering in September 1957) all students will be required to demonstrate proficiency in an ancient or modern foreign language before graduation. Several majors specify a reading knowledge of a language as a part of their requirement. The ways in which this requirement may be met are listed on page 39. It is to a student's advantage to enter College with more than the minimum required; i.e., three or four consecutive years of study in one foreign language, or two years of study in each of two languages. No entrance credit is allowed for less than two years of a foreign language.

Advanced Standing. Students taking enriched courses at schools participating in the School and College Study of Admission with Advanced Standing may be considered for advanced standing in one or more courses at Middlebury. The candidate is urged to take the appropriate Advanced Placement Tests administered by the College Board.

Examinations. All candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test and three Achievement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board in the senior year, whether or not they have been taken previously. It is recommended that candidates take the Scholastic Aptitude Test in December, January or February, and the Achievement Tests in March. The Achievement Tests shall be taken in English Composition, and in any two of the following subjects: a foreign language, science, social studies, or mathematics. A student who will complete three years of study in a foreign language by the time of high school graduation is urged to take one of the Achievement Tests in this subject. The results of the Tests are sent directly to the college as requested by the applicant, and the exact scores are not revealed to the applicant.

If the student cannot obtain the application forms from his secondary school, he should write directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey, for the Bulletin of Information and directions for the filing of applications, fee schedules, and the list of examination centers.

The dates of the College Board Tests for 1957–1958, the tests to be administered, and the penalty registration dates are listed below:

Dates and Tests	Penalty Registration Date
Saturday, December 7, 1957 SAT and Achievement Tests	November 16, 1957
Saturday, January 11, 1958 SAT ONLY	December 14, 1957
Saturday, February 8, 1958 SAT ONLY	January 11, 1958
Saturday, March 15, 1958 SAT and Achievement Tests	February 15, 1958
Saturday, May 17, 1958 SAT and Achievement Tests	April 19, 1958
Wednesday, August 13, 1958 SAT and Achievement Tests	July 23, 1958

Applications received after these closing dates will be subject to a penalty fee of three dollars in addition to the regular examination fee. Applications received later than two weeks prior to the date of the examination cannot be guaranteed acceptance.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

Inquiries regarding admission should be addressed to the Director of Admissions for Men or the Director of Admissions for Women. Application forms will be furnished on request. Application papers must be accompanied by an application fee of $10. This fee is not refundable and will not be applied to term bills. The right is reserved to close the application list for men candidates any time after March 1st and for women candidates on February 15th. All candidates are urged to visit the college at any time after the beginning of the junior year for a personal interview.

Transcript forms for the secondary school record and recommendations are sent by Middlebury College directly to the Principal of the applicant's school.

TRANSFERS

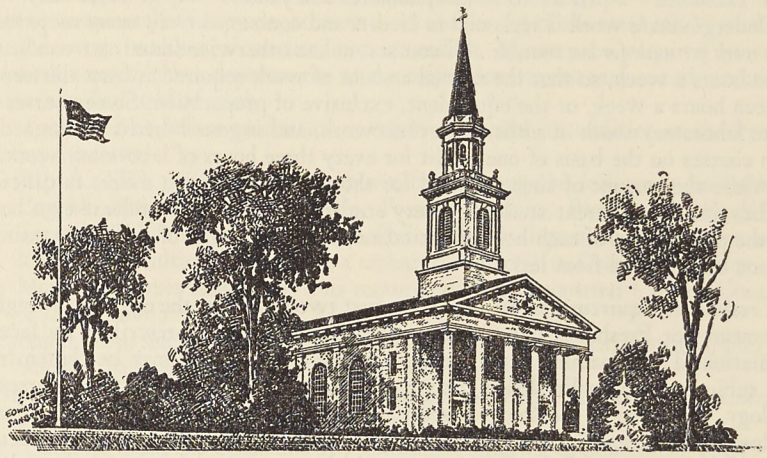
Only a limited number of students can be accepted by transfer from other colleges and universities, and all such students must come from approved institutions of collegiate rank. A candidate for admission with advanced standing should present a detailed transcript of work done in the institution previously attended, including a list of preparatory subjects accepted by that institution and a statement of honorable dismissal. In order to be considered for admission, a transfer applicant should present a "B" average from his original institution. Exceptions may be made for veterans of the armed forces.

Applicants for admission with advanced standing are expected to meet the same standards with regard to curricular preparation, character, and personality that apply to candidates for admission to the Freshman Class. In addition, candidates who have not taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test should arrange to do so through the College Entrance Examination Board.

No student who has left another institution for reasons of scholarship will be granted any academic favor which would not be extended by that institution. In other words, if a student is denied the privilege of returning to the original college for any reason whatsoever, he cannot be considered for transfer to Middlebury. Transfer credit will be allowed only for courses comparable to those offered here. Transfer students are not admitted to senior standing and are required to spend at least two undergraduate years at Middlebury.

All students transferring from other institutions are informed officially of their class standing and the amount of credit allotted not later than the end of their second month at Middlebury. In order to receive credit at Middlebury for work done elsewhere, a student must have obtained a grade of at least 70 on a scale comparable to that in use here in each course for which credit is to be allowed.

CURRICULUM



MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE confers the one undergraduate degree, Bachelor of Arts. It also confers the graduate degrees, Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Modern Languages.

UNDERGRADUATE WORK

The purpose of the liberal arts curriculum offered at Middlebury is to give every student a detailed knowledge of the work covered in at least one department, and to correlate with this knowledge a general understanding of many cultural subjects. Faculty advisers assist students in preparing a well-integrated program of courses.

To obtain the variety of interests and breadth of view which graduation from a college of liberal arts implies, undergraduates are urged to plan their college program and distribute their selection of courses wisely.

Previous to matriculation, all Freshmen are furnished with complete course descriptions and registration cards on which they designate their selection of courses for the first semester. During Freshman Week, each student is assigned a faculty counselor who gives further individual assistance in planning a course of study. Before the end of the student's second semester, his faculty counselor assists him in forming a tentative program for the remainder of his college course. A charge of $5 will be made for enrollment after the designated registration period.

The normal program of study for each student is four or five courses. Freshmen will be required to elect five courses in addition to Physical Education and basic R.O.T.C. for men. No regular student will be allowed to elect fewer than thirteen credits per semester without permission of the Dean and the Chief Adviser. A student may not carry more than sixteen credits unless he has an average of 80 or above, or is in his senior year, without permission of the Dean and the Chief Adviser. A charge of $30 a semester is made for each credit above sixteen, excepting the credit for the basic R.O.T.C. course.

Registration for the Fall semester is to be scheduled following the Easter vacation: Freshmen—April 21 to 28; Sophomores and Juniors—April 29 to May 5.

Undergraduate work is reckoned in credits and courses. A credit means one period of class work per week for one semester. All courses, unless otherwise stated, are conducted three hours a week, so that the normal amount of work required is from thirteen to sixteen hours a week, or the equivalent, exclusive of preparation. Some courses require laboratory work in addition to class work, and in general credit is assigned to such courses on the basis of one credit for every three hours of laboratory work.

While the amount of time required for thorough preparation differs in different studies and for different students, every student should allow at least two hours for the preparation of each hour of recitation; the best results of collegiate training cannot be expected from less.

Freshman Requirements. In each of the first two semesters the election of English Literature for Freshmen and Contemporary Civilization is prescribed by faculty regulation. The remaining three courses are free electives and may be chosen from any subjects open to Freshmen. At present these include introductory courses in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, History, Home Economics, Mathematics, Music, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Speech, and any of the ancient or modern languages. Only those courses which are numbered from 10 through 19 are open to Freshmen, except that Freshmen enrolled in a course within a Department may be assigned to a more advanced course by that Department upon their demonstration of special proficiency. Those who have taken a modern language in high school and have acquired satisfactory preparation may continue the subject in intermediate or advanced courses. It is advisable that students complete their science requirement during their first or second year. Biology, Chemistry, and Geology are open to Freshmen; Physics usually only to Sophomores.

Fields of Planned Study. Before the end of his second semester each student, in consultation with a faculty adviser, determines upon a Field of Planned Study to be pursued through the remainder of his course. A Field of Planned Study is a group of courses so planned as to form an integrated and coherent whole, attention being paid to the advantageous sequence of courses within a department and to the coordination of courses in different departments. As a rule each Field of Planned Study centers around some one department which sponsors the plan, the courses in the department being designated the major, those in other departments being called cognate courses. A joint major is the basis of a Field of Planned Study sponsored by two departments which cooperate for that purpose, in which case two-thirds of the work may be divided between those departments. A number of Special Interdepartmental Majors are also offered in particular areas; these are described under Courses of Instruction at the beginning of each Division.

The Faculty advisers will act as consultants in the selection of a Field of Planned Study. When one has been definitely chosen, a permanent adviser for the remainder of the college course is assigned to the student by and from the department sponsoring the plan chosen.

Distribution of Electives. The following regulations are prescribed for the choice of studies, and each student before graduation shall meet these requirements as to a major and the distribution of work.

1. At the end of the student's second semester a major study shall be chosen, and the maximum and minimum requirements for work in that department shall be fulfilled before graduation. The minimum requirement for a major is 24 credits. The maximum requirement in any department is 42 credits out of the total of 120 credits.

2. A certain number of credits, not exceeding 30, may be required in such cognate courses in other departments as the major department may specify in order to have a unified field of study.

3. Each student before graduation is required to take, in addition to the Freshman requirements,

Group A. Two semester courses chosen from among the following literatures: English, American, Greek, Latin, French, German, Russian (in English), Spanish, Italian; certain courses in Philosophy; Religion; or any courses of a literary and cultural rather than a technical character in Drama, Fine Arts and Music. (Courses that satisfy this requirement are designated § under Courses of Instruction.)

Group B. Two semester courses from the following: Economics, History, Political Science, Russian History (in English) or Sociology.

Group C. Two semester laboratory courses in one of the following departments: Biology, Chemistry, Geology, or Physics.

4. Effective with the Class of 1961 (freshmen entering in September 1957) all students will be required to demonstrate proficiency in an ancient or modern foreign language before graduation. Three years of effective language study in secondary school, or two years in college, will normally give the required proficiency. This requirement may be met in any one of the following ways:

(a) by a satisfactory score on the College Board Achievement Test, at the third-year secondary school level,

(b) by passing, preferably in the freshman year, a proficiency test prepared by the Middlebury College Language Division, and covering either a speaking or a reading knowledge, at the option of the student,

(c) by passing an intermediate, second-college-year course (designated by †) or a more advanced course, in a language previously studied,

(d) by passing a minimum of twelve semester hours in a language, the study of which is started at Middlebury.

Freshmen may not elect more than one course in a subject in a semester, Sophomores not more than two, and Juniors and Seniors not more than three. Not more than 42 credits in any subject may be counted toward the degree.

Other Regulations. A student who for any reason is not satisfied with his first choice of a major may before the end of his fourth semester change to another subject, but assurance should first be obtained from the department to which the change is proposed that the student will be able to meet its requirements in the remainder of his course. After the close of the fourth term changes in a major subject will be allowed only for exceptional reasons and with the consent of the Chief Adviser.

No change in studies will be allowed during the first week of the classroom work except by the permission of the adviser. During the second week of classroom work a change may be made only with the permission of the Adviser, Chief Adviser and the instructor involved, and the payment of a fee of $5. The fee must be paid to the Bursar before the new admittance card is given to the instructor. After the second week of classroom work no change may be made except within a department and upon the initiative of the instructor.

No refund of fees for extra courses or for the use of laboratories will be allowed after the second full week of the term.

To be eligible for a degree, a student must complete 120 credits. Only 24 semester hours of D grade are allowed to count toward a degree.

Women are required to complete four semesters of Physical Education; men are required to complete two semesters. Beginning with the Class of 1961, men will be required to complete four semesters.

The last two semesters must be spent in residence at Middlebury, except as provided in the Technical School Plan or the Professional School Plan.

The Dean of Men (or Women) with the Chief Adviser will consider any special curricular problems of veterans and grant waivers to the usual requirements when circumstances involve such factors as health, extended interruption of education, and family responsibilities.

"Successful completion of a year" for draft board certification is defined as "approved for continuance in college."

With the advance permission of the instructor and of the Dean, a student may attend a class regularly as an auditor, but he must take no part in the classroom exercises and make no demands upon the time of the instructor. A student auditing a course receives no college credit. Occasional visiting of a class is allowed with the permission of the instructor.

In order to transfer credit for work done at another recognized educational institution, a student must submit an official transcript. A grade of 70 or above, on a scale comparable to that in use here, must have been attained in each course submitted for credit. Each case will be considered individually on its own merits, and must receive the approval of the chairman of the student's major department, the Chief Adviser, and the Dean. Whenever possible the student should secure advance permission to attempt such work at another institution.

TECHNICAL, MEDICAL AND DENTAL SCHOOL PLANS

Students normally spend four years at Middlebury before going on to schools of engineering, architecture, medicine, and dentistry. However, a student preparing for one of these fields who wishes to limit his education at Middlebury to three years may transfer to an accredited school of engineering, architecture, medicine, or dentistry (requiring a minimum of two more years of study in the case of engineering, two or three in the case of architecture, and four in the case of medicine and dentistry) and become eligible for a Middlebury B.A. degree upon receipt of the professional degree. To qualify under this plan the student must complete at Middlebury the appropriate courses under (1) and fulfill the additional requirements under (2) below. In all cases the final approval for the granting of the Middlebury degree rests with the faculty.

Middlebury has formal agreements with Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, the Columbia University School of Engineering, and the Duke University School of Engineering which ensure admission to these schools on a combined five-year course of study. Students wishing to take advantage of these agreements must fulfill the requirements stated above and in addition secure the recommendation of the Pre-Professional Committee.

1a. Pre-engineering and pre-architecture prescribed courses:

Freshman year: Chemistry 10 or 11 (for engineers, but not required for architects), Mathematics 11 or 12.

Sophomore year: Drafting 28, Economics 21, Mathematics 21, Physics 21.

Junior year: Mathematics 33, Physics 31.1, 32.2, Physics 47, Elective from Group A or B above the 11 level for engineers, from Fine Arts for architects.

b. Pre-medicine and pre-dentistry prescribed courses:

Freshman year: Biology 11, Chemistry 10 or 11.

Sophomore year: Biology 21.1, 24.2, Chemistry 23, Mathematics 11 or 12.

Junior year: Chemistry 21.1, 31.2, Physics 21, Elective in Economics, History, or Psychology.

2. Additional requirements: ninety credits must be completed at Middlebury, in at least seventy-two of which a grade of seventy must be earned; a combined average of seventy-five or better must be achieved in the specified courses (exclusive of the electives) in (1) above; the freshman, foreign language, and Group A, B, C requirements (pages 38, 39) must be completed; and the student must rank in the upper half of his class during his fifth and sixth semesters.

A freshman who desires to participate in one of these plans should notify his adviser of his intention and arrange his program accordingly. At the end of the freshman year the student shall report to the chairman of the Pre-Professional Committee, Professor Benjamin F. Wissler, who will assign a faculty adviser for him as long as he continues in the program.

SCHOLARSHIP

As part of their education in assuming personal responsibilities, students are held responsible by the College for keeping parents correctly and currently informed regarding their standing and progress in college. Final grades, mid-semester grades of freshmen, second course warnings, and notices of academic probation, of all students are sent to parents; other reports of class standing are sent to parents only by periodic request to the Dean.

The final evaluation of a freshman's work is normally postponed until the end of the college year; however, the academic standing of all freshmen is reviewed at the end of the first semester, and freshmen who have not demonstrated the ability and incentive to carry on college work may be asked to withdraw. Any freshman who receives three failing grades at the end of the first semester is dropped from college.

At the end of any semester (after the first semester of the freshman year) a student receiving failing grades in two courses will be dropped from college. A student receiving three grades below 70 is placed on academic probation for the following semester, at the end of which time all grades but one must be 70 or over and that one not below 60 if the student is to remain in college. No transfer of credits will affect a student's probationary status.

At any time when a student is failing a course, consistently receiving grades below 70, or in any way neglecting the obligations of a course, he is placed on warning for a minimum of four weeks and may take no more unexcused absences in the course for that period. The penalty for taking such an unexcused absence is loss of one-half credit. At the end of the four-week period he may be taken off warning by the Dean if the instructor certifies that his work has improved sufficiently to warrant this action.

A student who is on warning at the same time in two courses may no longer represent Middlebury in extracurricular activities away from the College for the duration of the period of warning and is required to curtail extracurricular activities which take time from academic work. A student who is on warning at the same time in three courses is dropped from college, if it is the consensus of the instructors and the Dean that the failure is due to lack of application or to negligent attitude.

A student dropped at mid-years for academic failure may not be considered for readmission until the following September, and then only if he can present a minimum of 21 approved credits after attendance of a semester and a summer session at another accredited institution. A student dropped at the end of the year for academic failure may not be considered for readmission until one academic year has elapsed; it is expected that the academic year will be spent at another accredited college, but in some cases such records as military service, or employment, may be considered in lieu of the transcript of a year's work. Application for readmission is made to the Administration Committee through the Dean. No student will be readmitted until the Committee is satisfied that the conditions which caused the original failure have been removed. No student may be readmitted more than once.

Scholarship is graded on the scale of 100. Grades are interpreted as follows:

A	90 to 100	Excellent
B	80 to 89	Good
C	70 to 79	Fair
D	60 to 69	Passing
F	Below 60	Failure

A student who has completed 24 credits will be ranked as a Sophomore; 54 credits, a Junior; 84 credits, a Senior.

To be eligible for a degree, a student must complete 120 credits, of which not more than 24 may be of D grade.

Reports of standing are made to the Registrar by the instructors at the end of each semester. Upperclassmen may obtain final grades directly from the Registrar's Office, Freshman may obtain them from their advisers. The instructors are not permitted to give out final grades.

Students who attain an average of 85 in their courses at the end of a semester, and who have no grade below 80 are placed on the Dean's List.

ATTENDANCE

The College considers it the responsibility of every student to attend all scheduled meetings of a class and to complete all assignments at the time specified by the instructor. Middlebury recognizes the value of extracurricular activities, and all students are encouraged to participate in social, athletic and cultural functions outside of scheduled class work, but participation in these events cannot be at the expense of curricular obligations.

Since the seriousness of absence varies among different types of courses, instructors announce to their classes their individual attendance requirements, and specify the conditions under which work may be made up after necessary absence.

Whenever, in the opinion of the instructor, a student's work in a course is being impaired by reason of non-attendance, the Dean is informed and the student required to consult the instructor and to comply with any demands made for completing the work missed. When an absence is not justified, the student may not make demands on an instructor's time out of class.

While on warning in a course, a student may take no unexcused absences in that course, under penalty of loss of one-half credit for each absence.

Before a necessary absence is taken in any course, all students are advised to prepare an "Explanation of Absence" form in the Dean's Office (in the Nurse's Office, if illness is the cause) and submit the form to the instructor. Absences are not excused by the Dean or Nurse prior to a student's being placed on warning, except for necessary absence from a pre-announced test or for absence due to an emergency on the two days preceding or following a College recess. The explanations are for information only. The Dean's Office periodically submits to instructors names of students who are absent while participating in approved extracurricular activities.

On the last two days of classes preceding a College recess, or on the first two days of classes or exercises following a College recess, absences may be excused only for emergencies. Excuses are not granted for travel time, vacation employment, transportation arrangements and appointments away from College except in the case of scholarship holders and students on the Dean's list. One-half credit is deducted for each unexcused absence on these days.

At other times, reasons for absence which will usually be accepted as justifiable by the instructor and the Dean are necessary employment, illness (verified by the Nurse or Physician), participating in recognized extracurricular events, and emergencies.

Tardiness or unauthorized early departure from a class or exercise is recorded as an absence.

A student absent from a pre-announced test, without excuse, receives a failure for the test and is not granted the privilege of a make-up.

All students are required to attend at least eight Sunday Chapel events during each semester. Chapel events include Vesper services and Chapel lectures. Failure to attend at least eight of these exercises will result in the loss of one half credit for each absence.

Sophomores and Juniors are required to attend one daily Chapel service each week for at least ten weeks out of the thirteen in each semester. This obligation may be fulfilled by attending a service on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday each week. Failure for any reason to attend Chapel at least once in each week for ten weeks during each semester, will result in the loss of one half credit for each absence.

All Freshmen are required to attend Chapel every Friday. Three absences are allowed each semester, exclusive of absences excused by the Dean. When a Freshman has taken three unexcused absences, he is placed on Chapel warning and for each unexcused absence taken thereafter, one half credit is forfeited. If a Freshman is placed on Chapel warning during the last four weeks of a semester, the Chapel warning period extends through the following semester.

GENERAL EXAMINATION

During his senior year, each student before receiving the A.B. degree must pass the General Examination or its equivalent as required by his major department. One of the important objectives of Middlebury College is to provide for each of its students a well-integrated and unified body of intellectual experience. It wishes not only to give them factual and technical knowledge, but it wishes to assist them in developing that deep and broad understanding which comes from the assimilation of knowledge and from a comprehension of all parts of their major field and its relationship to other fields. With this objective in view, each Division or Department defines and announces its objectives of over-all correlation and comprehension, in terms of its own subject matter, and informs, its students regarding procedures to be followed. A brief statement of the plan adopted is made in this catalogue at the head of the program of instruction for each department. A student electing to complete a major in each of two departments must pass the General Examination or its equivalent in both departments.

HONORS

As a recognition of superior scholarship and ability the faculty has instituted a system of honors to be awarded at the completion of the college course. Honors are of two classes: commencement honors and departmental honors.

Commencement honors are awarded for high scholastic rank for the four years of the college course. The degree of A.B. is conferred cum laude upon those who have attained an average rank, for the entire course, of 85 to 89; magna cum laude if that rank is 90 to 94; summa cum laude if it is 95 or above. No student is eligible for these honors who has not done at least four terms' work in residence at Middlebury College.

Departmental honors are awarded as an incentive to special work and a recognition of superior ability in the student's major field of work. Since there is considerable variation in the nature of the work of different departments, each department may provide for honors work in such of the following plans as is best suited to its particular requirements and methods of work.

Plan A. A candidate for honors is required to complete some assigned project or subject for individual study and investigation, and to pass a special examination by the department upon such project and related material. This examination may be written or oral or both. The honors program may include a thesis, but such thesis shall not be in lieu of the examination.

Plan B. A department may offer a special honors course to be taken by qualified students as one of the five courses of their senior year. Such a course will be of an advanced and comprehensive character.

Plan C. Honors may be awarded by a department by a unanimous vote of the department, and with the approval of the departmental heads of the division, to students who have distinguished themselves by outstanding achievements and a high quality of work in their major field, even though they have not applied for honors or taken the honors program.

All departmental honors are subject to the following regulations:

1. Students desiring to work for honors shall consult with their major department at the end of their junior year, and earlier if possible, with the exception noted in Plan C.

2. In order to be eligible to work for honors a student must have a general average of 80 in his college course and an average of 80 in the department in which honors are sought. This average must be maintained during the senior year. To receive honors, a student must obtain a grade of 85 or above in the work comprehended in the honors program.

3. In order to receive High Honors, a student must have a general average of 85 in his college course, an average of 85 in the department in which honors are sought; and a grade of 90 in the work comprehended in the honors program.

4. A student completing satisfactorily an honors program under Plan A or B in which an examination of broad scope is a part of the honors requirement, may by a vote of the department be exempted from the general departmental examination.

These honors will be printed on the Commencement program and in the next annual Catalogue, and will be certified to, when requested, by a written certificate from the Registrar and the chairman of the department, stating the nature and quality of the extra work done.

HONORARY APPOINTMENTS

The faculty, under the direction of the Corporation, gives honorary Commencement appointments; to the senior man and senior woman attaining highest rank, the appointment of Valedictorian, and to those second in rank, the appointment of Salutatorian.

Transfer students are not eligible for these appointments.

PHI BETA KAPPA

The Middlebury Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society is the Beta of Vermont. Students are elected to Phi Beta Kappa by the faculty members of the chapter on the basis of outstanding academic achievement. Students are eligible for election at the beginning of their senior year on the basis of six terms work at Middlebury, or at the end of their senior year on the basis of eight terms work at Middlebury. Students graduating from Middlebury who have transferred from other colleges may be elected on the basis of at least four terms at Middlebury.

GRADUATE WORK

During the academic year, Middlebury College provides graduate courses in the Chemistry and French departments, for students desiring to work toward a Master's degree. Graduate students may be enrolled only if admitted by the Committee on Graduate Work. Correspondence should be directed to the head of the department. The courses which are regularly offered for graduate credit are: Chemistry 42.1, 42.2, 43.1, 43.2, 49.1, 55.1, 55.2; French 32, 41.1, 41.2, 42.1, 42.2, 43, 44, 45, 46.1, 50.1, 50.2. Some courses in other departments may, under certain conditions, be raised to graduate level.

The degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Science may be earned by graduate work completed during the regular college year, or in the Summer Language Schools, in accordance with the following regulations:

1. The candidate must have a baccalaureate degree from this College, or from another institution whose course of study and requirements for graduation are approved by the Committee on Graduate Work.

2. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, or Master of Science, two full terms in residence and the completion of work equivalent to thirty credits will be necessary. This requirement of residence may also be met by attendance at the Summer Language Schools. Two-thirds of the required work must be completed at Middlebury College.

3. Candidates must satisfy the department chairman, and the Committee on Graduate Work of their fitness to undertake the proposed program of graduate study.

4. Graduate work done in other institutions may be transferred toward the Middlebury degree, under certain specific limitations which may be learned from the Committee.

5. Two-thirds of the required work must consist of graduate courses in the department of the major; the remaining one-third may consist of cognate courses of graduate grade prescribed by the department in which the major work is undertaken. A minimum grade of 80 shall be maintained in each course counting toward the degree.

Effective with students beginning graduate work in the summer of 1957, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College toward a Masters degree expire and may no longer be counted toward the Master's degree after ten years have elapsed since the study was done.

6. Tuition fees are the same as those charged for undergraduate work, i.e., at the rate of $450. for a full semester program of fifteen credits; otherwise at the rate of $30. per credit. (See page 30). An additional fee of $15 is required for the diploma.

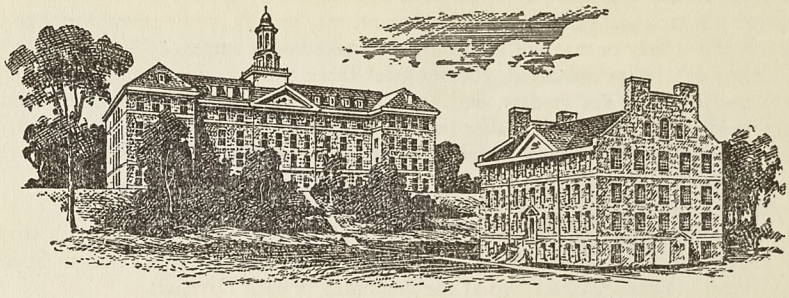
GRADUATE SCHOOLS ABROAD

Middlebury College also conducts a Graduate School of French in France, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Selected groups of graduate students are prepared by a required preliminary summer of study at Middlebury, and then are enrolled for the academic year in the University of Paris, or the Universities of Madrid or Salamanca. These students follow a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, institutions, and culture. They are enrolled in the various institutes or branches of the foreign university system, where the instruction is given by the regular faculty. The programs are under the supervision of resident representatives of Middlebury College, and the final examinations are administered under their direction. Successful candidates receive the Middlebury College Master of Arts degree. A special bulletin on the programs will be sent on request.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MODERN LANGUAGES

In addition to the Master's degree, Middlebury College offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). A detailed statement of the requirements for this degree will be sent on request.

COURSES



THE DEPARTMENTS of instruction are organized in five Divisions: Humanities, Foreign Languages, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Military Science and Tactics; and are described in this catalog in the following order:

Division of Military Science and Tactics

Some courses are given as year-courses, with a final examination at the end of the year. Some courses are given by semesters; first-semester courses are usually designated by .1 after the number; second-semester courses by .2. Each of these is a separate unit with its final examination. The figures .1 and .2 after the same number for two courses indicate that those two courses are complementary, and together form an instructional program. The first course may or may not be prerequisite to the second and it may or may not be required to take both courses.

Unless otherwise indicated, courses meet three times a week on alternate days. Year-courses carry six credits, and semester courses carry three credits. Courses numbered 10–19 are usually taken by freshmen; 20–29, by sophomores; 30–39, by juniors; 40–49, by seniors. Schedules are cleared on this basis, and conflicts will thus be most easily avoided.

At the head of each departmental section, the requirements for a major in that department are described, together with recommended courses, and the plan chosen by the department for fulfilling the General Examination requirement. Special Divisional Majors are described at the beginning of each Division.

Prerequisites to a course are shown in parentheses. Courses not being offered in 1957–58 are bracketed. Abbreviations include: Lab., laboratory period; Lect., lecture period; D., Drama. Courses marked § satisfy the Group A requirement. (Page 39). Courses marked † satisfy the foreign language requirement. (Page 39).

The college reserves the right, without further notice, to cancel any courses herein described, or to make any other changes in staff, fees, and courses which may be deemed necessary.

PRACTICAL MUSIC

The aim of this Department is to present music for its value as literature and as a record of one aspect of human achievement, not as professional training. We strongly encourage students to improve performing techniques as a necessary means of cultivating the art. However, no credit toward graduation is given for private study of practical music. The College will assist the student as far as possible in securing adequate instruction when not provided by the regular staff.

Students who wish private instruction in piano, violin, viola, violoncello should enroll with the Chairman of the Department.

Fees are to be paid to the Treasurer's office at the beginning of each semester. No rebate is allowed for lessons missed except in the case of continued illness. Students may be accepted for less than a full semester, in which case fees will be prorated.

M-1 Private Instruction in the Study of the Pianoforte
1 lesson weekly, use of piano 1 hour daily. Fee $60.00 per semester.

M-4 Private Instruction in Violin and Viola
1 lesson weekly. Fee $50.00 per semester.

Music Library
The department equipment, augmented in 1937 by gifts from the Carnegie Corporation, now includes several thousand records, scores, and a cross reference file of the records. The collection kept in the Music Studio is available for both class work and student audition at hours set by the head of the department. Special listening equipment is available.

Music Organizations
The College Chamber Orchestra is open to all students who play an orchestral instrument and who qualify after auditions. The group holds weekly rehearsals and prepares concerts. Advanced instrumentalists who can qualify may have the opportunity of playing with the Vermont State Symphony Orchestra. Mr. CARTER

The College Choir sings in daily chapel, Sunday Vespers, and special concerts. Admission is by try-out. Mr. BERGER

Men's Glee Club studies a varied repertory and gives concerts on and off campus. Mr. BERGER

Women's Glee Club studies a varied repertory and gives concerts on and off campus. Mr. BERGER

Playing in small ensembles is encouraged. Those interested should see Mr. Carter. The Choir and Orchestra work together on oratorios from time to time. Works given in recent years include: Mozart, Brahms, Faure Requiems, Handel Messiah, and Bach Mass in B minor, St. Matthew Passion and Magnificat.

THE CLASSICS

Assistant Professor Harris

The principal aims of courses in the Classics are to enable the student to attain a rapid and accurate reading knowledge of Latin or Greek, and then to read broadly while he is developing his critical skill and sense of humanistic evaluation. Greek and Latin literature are understood to be a reflection of the spiritual and artistic concern which mark the literature of the West, and the major literary achievements are to be studied in this light.

A basic knowledge of the grammatical forms (the equivalent of approximately three years' secondary school study) is required for the Freshman course.

Required for a Major: Latin 11.1, 11.2, 21.1, 21.1, 31.1, 31.2, 41; History 13.1, 13.2; Sociology 12.2 and/or 23.2 are strongly recommended.

Required General Examination. Students will be prepared by seminar work (including independent reading and papers) in third and fourth year work. Certain modifications of the program may be considered in the case of students taking a joint major in Latin and another language.

Latin

11.1 Introduction to Poetry: Catullus, Tibullus, Propertius§ Fall semester
Brief review of grammar and introduction to versification with use of tape recordings for practice in the reading of Latin verse. As soon as the essentials are grasped, attention will be turned to the appreciative interpretation of the works covered.
Mr. Harris

11.2 Introduction to Poetry: Horace's Odes.§† Spring semester
Mr. Harris

21.1 Roman Comedy§ Fall semester
One play of Plautus and one of Terence will be read. A slightly greater emphasis will be placed upon speed, and larger sections of text will be read. The more difficult passages will be studied in class, and supplementary texts will be introduced to aid the student's ability to read at sight. One extra hour of Prose Composition per week will be required throughout the year (with no extra credit), to introduce more advanced syntax. Mr. Harris

21.2 The Philosophical Poem: Lucretius§ Spring semester
Mr. Harris

31.1 Roman History: Tacitus§ Fall semester
Mr. Harris

31.2 Roman Satire: Horace, Juvenal, Persius§ Spring semester
Mr. Harris

41 Senior Reading Course§
Intensive study of a major author or area of Latin literature throughout the year, with extensive reading of related materials in Latin, and introduction to the body of modern scholarship. Mr. Harris 50.1 and 50.2 Independent study for majors in the department.

Greek

15.1 Introduction Fall semester
No previous knowledge of the language is assumed. An inductive method will be used, and although a reading knowledge of Greek is the principal aim, much of use tape recordings will be made to attain clarity of understanding and to teach vocabulary. No credit for 15.1 is allowed until 15.2 is completed. Mr. Harris

15.2 Rapid reading in easy prose: Herodotos or Xenophon Spring semester
(Greek 15.1) Mr. Harris

24.1 The Epic§ Fall semester
Introduction to Epic style and language, and detailed study of Iliad Book 1. (Greek 15.2 or its equivalent) Mr. Harris

24.2 The Epic§† Spring semester
Rapid reading of several books of the Iliad or Odyssey, with attention to developing facility in reading. (Greek 24.1) Mr. Harris

[25.2 Greek drama in translation.]

50.1 and 50.2 Independent study for majors in the Classics.

Education

Any student who expects to teach in public schools upon graduation should take Psych. 11.1, .2 during his freshman year, or at least in his sophomore year, since it is prerequisite to basic courses in Education.

Students who plan to teach at the secondary level are advised to consult with Mr. Harshbarger before planning their programs for the sophomore year. Although an Education major is not offered, Middlebury graduates can qualify to teach at the secondary level in most states by taking 18 hours in Education, including Student Teaching. Candidates for this level are urged to prepare themselves to teach one major subject and at least one related minor. Majors are administered by the appropriate departments, except the special major in Social Studies for Teaching, which is administered by the Department of Psychology and Education.

Students interested in teaching at the elementary level can, by careful selection of courses in the Department of Psychology and Education and of related courses in other departments, meet the certification requirements for many states. Students interested in this level should consult with Mrs. Harshbarger before registering for the sophomore year and should obtain a list of recommended courses.

The Department gives specific attention to training for teaching which will enable students to obtain teacher certification in Vermont.

In order to insure meeting the certification requirements of the states in which they have most interest, students are urged to consider their programs with Mr. or Mrs. Harshbarger prior to each registration.

Students interested in one of the fifth-year programs in teacher education in effect at Harvard and certain other universities, should consult Mr. Harshbarger.

The authorities of the Middlebury Public Schools cooperate actively with the College in arranging programs of student teaching.

28.2 Educational Psychology (Psychology of Learning) Spring semester
A study of psychology as applied to formal educational procedures. Includes consideration of emotional and social climate, types of learning, and methods of evaluation. Emphasis upon psychology as a basis for determining and attaining the optimum conditions for learning. (Psych. 11.1, .2—Psych. 11.2 may be taken concurrently with this course.) Mr. HARSHBARGER

37.1 History of Education Fall semester
An investigation of the historical backgrounds of American education. Special attention is given to recent educational developments and to influential philosophies of education. Emphasis is placed on the influence of natural and social forces in the educational systems of the United States and the major nations of Europe. (Educ. 28.2 or permission.) Mr. HARSHBARGER

37.2 Principles of Education Spring semester
Methods of teaching, classroom management, and curricular planning. Attention is given to types of school and class organization, and to aims of instruction. Opportunity is provided for special projects in subject matter specialization. (Psych. 28.1 or Educ. 28.2, Educ. 37.1, and permission.) Mr. HARSHBARGER

39.1 Methods and Curriculum in Elementary Education Fall semester
Consideration of current methods and practices in the area of the communication skills: reading, writing, spelling, oral language, and children's literature. This course is recommended not only for elementary teachers, but also for secondary teachers who desire additional understanding of the reading process and its role in school learning. Required prior to Student Teaching at the elementary level. (Educ. 28.2 or Psych 28.1, and permission.) Mrs. HARSHBARGER

39.2 Methods and Curriculum in Elementary Education Spring semester
Consideration of current methods and practices in the areas of arithmetic, social studies, and science, with special emphasis on the construction of resource units. (Educ. 39.1) Mrs. HARSHBARGER

42.1 Student Teaching Fall and Spring semesters
Students are placed in nearby schools, whenever possible in the grade and subject of their choice, where they participate in all phases of the educative process under the guidance of experienced teachers. (Educ. 37.2 or Educ. 39.1, and permission. In order to obtain one of the limited placements in student teaching, students should apply for permission to take this course a full semester in advance of actual registration for the course.) Mr. HARSHBARGER, Mrs. HARSHBARGER

43.2 Student Teaching Fall and Spring semesters
This course is usually taken concurrently with Educ. 42.1.
Mr. HARSHBARGER, Mrs. HARSHBARGER

Mr. Flavin
Mr. Ricciardelli

Required for a major: A minimum of 24 hours in Sociology-Anthropology including Soc. 12.1, 12.2, 23.1, 23.2, 31.1 or 31.2, 32.2, 60.2.

Recommended: Psych. 38, 27.1, 29.1; Pol. Sci. 11.1, 11.2, Am. Lit. 21.1, 21.2, Phil. 22.1, 22.2, Biol. 11.2, 23.1, Hist. 13.1, 13.2, 36.1, 36.2.

Cognate courses should be planned with the advisor for the desired objective.

The requirements of the General Examination will be satisfied by passing course 60.2 with its final examination.

12.1 Introduction to Sociology-Anthropology Fall semester
A broad survey of major social problems of our society, e.g., crime, juvenile delinquency, mental illness, suicide. Outline of the scientific method and the techniques of sociology and anthropology. Mr. Flavin, Mr. Ricciardelli

12.2 Introduction to Sociology-Anthropology Spring semester
Continuation of Soc. 12.1. The development and nature of culture. Cultural variability, illustrated by an analysis and comparison of selected non-literate cultures such as the Pueblo Indians and Dobrians. The ingredients of social life, including the concepts of socialization, social interaction, social organizations.
Mr. Flavin, Mr. Ricciardelli

23.1 Physical Anthropology Fall semester
Where and when the earliest human beings appeared. How the physical characteristics of Man have evolved. Resemblances and differences between major human types. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.) Mr. Sholes

23.2 Cultural Anthropology Spring semester
Continuation of Soc. 23.1. The concept of culture. An intensive analysis and comparison of non-literate cultures. Implications of the data of cultural anthropology for the understanding of our own culture. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.)
Mr. Ricciardelli

31.1 The Community Fall semester
The Community seen primarily in ecological perspective. Analysis and comparison of different kinds of communities in literate and non-literate societies. Community planning. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.) Mr. Ricciardelli

31.2 Social Stratification Spring semester
The social dimension of dominance and submission. Biological foundations. Funda-mentals of class and caste organization and relationship to selected social and psychical factors. Analysis and comparison of status systems in literate and non-literate societies. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. or Soc.) Mr. Ricciardelli

[32.1 Socio-Cultural Change] Fall semester
Society and culture viewed in dynamic perspective. Principles of socio-cultural change derived mainly from selected studies of acculturation. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.) Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

32.2 Survey of Social Thought Spring semester
A survey of Man's ideas about society, with emphasis upon the views of such thinkers as Confucius, the early Hindus, Plato, Aristotle, the Scholastics, Comte, Weber, etc. Implications of their ideas for the study and planning of societies. Relationship of these ideas to the society in which they arose. (Juniors and Seniors) Mr. Flavin

34.1 Majority-Minority Group Relations (Seminar) Fall semester
Prejudice and discrimination against minority groups in literate and non-literate societies seen in social-psychological perspective. (1 yr. of Psych. and Soc. and permission.) Mr. Flavin

[36.2 Social Psychology of Religion]
Religion as a variety of culture. Social and psychical factors influencing religious conceptions and behavior. Analysis of materials from literate and non-literate societies. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc. and permission.) Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

37.1 Public Opinion and Mass Communications
The sociological study of mass communications and propaganda with emphasis on their function as instruments of social control. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Flavin

41.2A Marriage and the Family Spring semester
A study of the family as a social institution and of marriage as a medium of social expression. (Juniors and Seniors) Mr. Sholes

41.2B Courtship, Marriage and Family Problems (Seminar) Spring semester
(Permission and advance arrangement for a limited number of Seniors. Students taking Soc. 41.2A may not take Soc. 41.2B.) Mr. Sholes

42.1 Personality and Culture Fall semester
Development and modification of the personality in terms of the culture and subcultures in which one grows and functions. Especial emphasis upon materials from non-literate societies. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.) Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Ricciardelli

43.1 Criminology and Penology Fall semester
A study of crime in American society and the factors associated with criminal behavior. Examination of penalties and treatments. Trip fee $5. (A total of 1 yr. of Soc. and/or Psych.) Mr. Sholes

46.1 Social Problems Fall semester

The case study approach to a selected number of social problems which the community and state have sought to treat and control. (A total of 1 yr. of Psych. and/or Soc.) Trip fee $5. Mr. Sholes

46.2 Theory and Methods of Social Work Spring semester

A course for advanced students interested in, or preparing for, work in social work agencies. The study of the aims and work methods of social work agencies. (Soc. 46.1) Trip fee $5. Mr. Sholes

50.1 and 50.2 Advanced Individual Study Fall and Spring semesters

Majors only, by permission. Staff

60.2 Methods of Social Research Spring semester

An intensive analysis of sociological research methods. Actual application of research methods to a selected research problem conducted by the seminar. Staff

Program for High School Teachers of Science

The Departments of Biology, Chemistry and Physics each offers a special major for students desiring to prepare for high school teaching. This major provides a thorough grounding in the individual science studied, and an acquaintanceship with the other natural sciences. Details of the program may be learned from the chairmen of the respective departments.

BIOLOGY

Professor Hitchcock
Mr. Chute
Mr. Woodin

Required for a major: Biol. 11.1, 11.2, 21.1, 22.2, 44.1, 60.2, and three electives; Chemistry 10 or 11.

Recommended: Mathematics 11 or 12, Chemistry 23.

Joint major in Biology and Chemistry: Biol. 11.1, 11.2, 21.1, 44.1 and one elective; Chem. 11, 21.1, 23, 31.2, and 60.2; Mathematics 11 or 12; Physics 21. Joint majors in Biology and Chemistry must have a reading knowledge of French or German or Russian. This requirement may be met by the completion of the normal second-year college language course or by a reading test set by the language department.

The requirement of the general examination will be satisfied by passing course 60.2 and its final examination.

11.1 Botany Fall and Spring semesters

A study of plant life with emphasis on anatomy, physiology and development of the seed plants. Based upon life-cycle of a typical seed-bearing plant. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10. No prerequisite. Mr. Woodin

11.2 Zoology Fall and Spring semesters

Correlation of structure and function in representative animals; developmental processes; elementary genetics; theories of evolution. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10. No prerequisite. Mr. Hitchcock

21.1 Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates Fall semester

A study of vertebrate structure, adaptation and evolution. Dissection of representative types. (Biol. 11.2) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10. Mr. Hitchcock

22.2 Plant Morphology Spring semester

Advanced botany built around a comparative survey of the structure, reproduction and relationships of the major plant groups. Emphasis placed upon evolutionary aspects. Individual laboratory problems. (Biol. 11.1) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10. Mr. Woodin

23.2 Human Physiology Spring semester
The structure and function of the human organism. Laboratory study of the mechanism of nervous, respiratory, muscular, circulatory and digestive systems of vertebrates. (Biol. 11.2) Limited to 30 students. Not open to majors in Biology or Biology-Chemistry. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $5.
Mr. Chute

24.2 Comparative Embryology Spring semester
General principles of animal development, with emphasis on vertebrate types. Detailed laboratory study of early development of frog and chick. (Biol. 21.1) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $5. Mr. Hitchcock

25.1 Genetics Fall semester
Principles of inheritance in plants and animals. Implications of genetics in the study of the evolution, development, and activities of species and populations, including mankind. This course does not fulfill the group C requirement. (Biol. 11.1 or 11.2) 3 hrs. lect.—3 credits. Mr. Chute

[34.2 Histology and Histologic Technique]

35.2 Principles of General Microbiology Spring semester
Lecture, laboratory and field study of the basic biological activities and relationships of the microorganisms and invertebrates. (12 students by permission, Biol. 11.1, 11.2 and Chem. 10 or 11) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $5. Mr. Chute

36.1 Principles of General Ecology Fall semester
Relations of plants and animals to environment and to each other. Laboratories primarily field work. Fundamentals of soil, water, forest and wildlife conservation and management. (11 students by permission, Biol. 11.1, 11.2) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10. Mr. Woodin

44.1 General Physiology Fall semester
Study of the chemical and physical phenomena manifested in living systems. Emphasis on the basic principles underlying biological functions. Laboratory program will include individual and group problems of an experimental nature. (Biol. 21.1; Chem. 10 or 11; Chem. 23 recommended. Seniors or permission) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10 and breakage. Mr. Chute

50.1 and 50.2 Advanced Study Fall and Spring semesters
For honors students and majors in Biology. (Permission.) Fee of $10 per semester.

60.2 Special Correlating Course Spring semester
Required of all majors in Biology, in satisfaction of the General Examination requirement. Mr. Chute

CHEMISTRY

Professor HARNEST
Assistant Professor MOYER
Assistant Professor ROBERTS
Assistant Professor POOL

Required for a Major: 10 or 11, 21.1, 23, 31, 60.2, and two other semester courses in the department; Mathematics 11 or 12.

Required for a Certified Major: Students who wish to be certified by the American Chemical Society may complete a major in Chemistry with the following courses: 10 or 11, 21.1, 23, 31, 41, and two other semester courses in the department; Mathematics 11 or 12, and 21; Physics 21; a reading knowledge of German is required. German 22 is recommended. This language requirement may be met by completion of the normal second-year college course or by a reading test. The certified major is designed to qualify a student for advanced work in graduate school or for positions in chemical industry.

oint major in Biology and Chemistry. Required for a Major: Biology 11.1, 11.2, 21.1, 44.1, and one elective: Chemistry 11, 21.1, 23, 31.2, and 60.2; Mathematics 11 or 12; Physics 21. Joint Majors in Chemistry and Biology must have a reading knowledge of French or German or Russian. This requirement may be met by the completion of the normal second-year college language course, or by a reading test set by the language department.

Not more than 42 semester hours in the department may be counted for graduation.

Students wishing to become high school teachers of science with concentration in Chemistry should ask Mr. Harnest for details of the special program.

For the Certified Major, the requirement of the General Examination will be satisfied by passing Chem. 41 with its final examination; for the General Major, the requirement will be satisfied by passing Chem. 60.2 with its final examination.

Joint majors in Biology and Chemistry will satisfy the requirement of the General Examination by passing Biol. 44.1 and Chem. 60.2 with their final examinations.

The Chemistry department is accredited by the Committee on the Professional Training of Chemists of the American Chemical Society. The certified major provides a thorough training in the fundamentals of Chemistry and its relation to other scientific fields, medicine, engineering, and related subjects. Students completing this program satisfactorily will be adequately qualified for advanced work in graduate schools or positions in chemical industry. Majors should have their programs approved by the Chairman of the department early in their college course if they wish to be accredited by the Society.

A deposit fee to cover cost of broken apparatus is charged in each laboratory course, to be paid to the Treasurer at the beginning of each term.

[10 Introductory General Chemistry]

11.1 General Chemistry Fall semester

Fundamental principles of chemistry; study of the elements, their compounds, reactions, etc., including a historical, philosophical background; the more recent industrial processes and applications; elementary qualitative analysis. Problem drill, conferences; 3 hrs. lect., 4 hrs. lab.—4 credits. (Two sections with total enrollment limited to 164). Laboratory fee, $10 and breakage.

Mr. MOYER, Mr. ROBERTS

11.2 General Chemistry Spring semester

Continuation of 11.1. Same hours, credits and fees as for 11.1. (Chem. 11.1.)

Mr. MOYER, Mr. ROBERTS

21.1 Qualitative Analysis Fall semester
Elementary chemical theory, theory of solutions, equilibrium, reactions in solution; laboratory work in semi-micro analysis of the more common metallic and acid ions. (Chem. 10.2 or 11.2, Math. 11.2) 3 hrs. lect., 4 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10 and breakage. Mr. Pool

23.1 Introductory Organic Chemistry Fall semester
Chemistry of the carbon compounds, both aliphatic and aromatic. Electronic and structural theory, organic synthesis, analysis and functional behavior of the important classes of compounds. (Chem. 10.2 or 11.2.) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. (Limited to 47 students). Laboratory fee, $12 and breakage. Mr. Harnest

23.2 Introductory Organic Chemistry Spring semester
Continuation of 23.1. Same hours, credits, and fees as for 23.1. (Chem. 23.1.)
Mr. Harnest

31.1 Quantitative Analysis Fall semester
Lectures and laboratory work. Theories of analytical chemistry and general methods of gravimetric analysis. Instrumental methods of analysis. (Chem. 21.1 or permission). 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10 and breakage.
Mr. Pool

31.2 Quantitative Analysis Spring semester
Continuation of 31.1. Laboratory work is chiefly volumetric analysis with some training in instrumental procedures. This course may precede 31.1. (Chem. 21.1 or permission). Lectures, lab. hrs., lab. fees, and credits the same as for 31.1. (Limited to 28 students). Mr. Pool

41.1 Physical Chemistry Fall semester
Modern chemical theory extending and coordinating earlier courses. Physical states of matter, chemical thermodynamics, solutions, homogeneous equilibria. Heterogeneous and ionic equilibria, kinetics, electro chemistry, colloids, atomic and molecular structure. A knowledge of physics, the calculus, elementary organic chemistry, and quantitative techniques is required. Open to Physics majors by permission. Required of all certified majors in fulfillment of the requirement of the general examination. (Chem. 21.1, 23.2, 31.2; Physics 21.1, 21.2; Math. 21.1 and 21.2.) 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $10 and breakage.
Mr. Roberts

41.2 Physical Chemistry Spring semester
Continuation of 41.1. Required of all certified majors in fulfillment of the requirement of the general examination. Same hours, credits, and fees as for 41.1. (Chem. 41.1.) Mr. Roberts

42.1 Biochemistry
Chemistry of carbohydrates, lipids, and proteins. Urine, blood, and other fluids. Laboratory study of the properties of these substances including clinical procedures. (Chem. 23.2; Biol. 11.2 and Chem. 31.2 recommended) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $10 and breakage. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Moyer

42.2 Biochemistry
Digestion, absorption, and metabolism of carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, and inorganic substances. Chemistry and physiology of enzymes, vitamins, and hormones. Chemotherapy and immuno-chemistry. Each student carries out a special project in the laboratory. (Chem. 42.1 or permission.) Lectures, lab. hrs., lab. fees, and credits the same as for 42.1. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59.
Mr. Moyer

43.1 Advanced Organic Chemistry Fall semester
Characterization of various types of organic compounds. Practice in qualitative analysis, separation of mixtures, and quantitative determination of elements and functional groups. Relation of physical properties and chemical constitution, functionalism and structure, analytical methods and syntheses. (Chem. 23.2, 31.2.) 2 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $12 and breakage. Mr. Harnest

43.2 Advanced Organic Chemistry Spring semester
Studies in advanced synthesis; electronic theory; reaction mechanisms; molecular rearrangements; cyclic and polynuclear compounds; naturally occurring substances. Laboratory work in advanced synthesis, including individual projects. (Chem. 43.1 or permission.) 3 hrs. lect., 6 hrs. lab., lab. fees, and credits the same as for 43.1. Mr. Harnest

[49.1 Advanced Inorganic Chemistry]
Atomic and molecular structure, periodicity of the elements, coordination compounds, poly-acids, non-aqueous systems, and acid-base concepts. Laboratory work in advanced synthesis. (Chem. 21.1; Math. 11 or 12; Chem. 31.2 recommended.) 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10 and breakage. Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

[49.2 Advanced Inorganic Chemistry]
Hydrogen and the hydrides, metallic and non-metallic oxides, inorganic nomenclature, and special topics. (Chem. 49.1 or permission.) Lectures, lab. hrs. lab. fees, and credits same as for 49.1. Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

55.1 and 55.2 Research Fall and Spring semesters
Open to properly qualified students. Required of candidates for the Master's degree. Permission. Laboratory fee, $12 per semester and breakage. Staff
a. Analytical Chemistry
b. Inorganic Chemistry
c. Physical Chemistry
d. Organic and Biochemistry

60.2 Chemical Principles Spring semester
Introduction to Physical Chemistry and physicochemical measurements. The course is designed to extend and coordinate earlier courses in chemistry and is required of all chemistry and joint biology-chemistry majors who do not register for 41.1 and 41.2. This course fulfills the General Examination requirement for these majors. (Chem. 21.1, 23.1, 23.2, 31.2) 3 hrs. lect., 4 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee $10 and breakage. Mr. Pool

GEOLOGY, GEOGRAPHY, DRAFTING

Professor Schmidt
Associate Professor Illick*
Assistant Professor Welby
Mr. Siddell

Required for a Major: 11.1, 11.2, 30.1 or 33.1, 23.1, 31.2, 33.2, 41.1, 41.2 or an acceptable Summer Field Course, three additional credits in Geology; Chemistry 10.1, 10.2 or 11.1, 11.2, Math. 11,1, 11.2, Geography 25.1, either Geography 40.2 or Drafting 28.2; and three additional credits in Mathematics, Chemistry or Physics.

Recommended: Additional courses in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Geology, are recommended for those applying to graduate school.

Required General Examination: Students will be prepared by conferences and reading lists.

Geology

11.1 Physical Geology Fall semester

The development of the physical features of the earth and the agents responsible for their formation; the structure of the earth's crust; and the more important rocks and minerals. 3 hrs. lecture, 3 hrs. lab., and field trips.—4 credits. Field trip fee $6.

Mr. Schmidt, Mr. Welby

11.2 Historical Geology Spring semester

The origin of the earth and its physical evolution through geologic time; the rise and evolution of organic forms as disclosed by fossils; the formation of important mineral resources. 3 hrs. lecture, 3 hrs. lab., and field trips. (Geol. 11.1.) 4 credits. Field trip fee, $4.

Mr. Schmidt, Mr. Welby

23.1 Mineralogy Fall semester

Identification of the important minerals by blowpipe, flame, bead, and sensitive chemical tests; study of the crystal structure of the minerals. Field trips. Limited to ten students. (Geology 11.1 or Chemistry 11.1.) Laboratory fee, $5.

Mr. Schmidt

30.1 Invertebrate Paleontology Fall semester

Study of invertebrate fossils by comparison with living types; their evolution, geologic significance, and use for correlating strata. (Geol. 11.2.) 2 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab., Lab. fee, $3.

Mr. Welby

31.2 Economic Geology Spring semester

Geologic origin, use, and world distribution of fuels, nonmetallic, and metallic minerals. Discussion of prospecting, drilling, mining, milling, and concentration methods used. Special emphasis will be given to the resources of the United States and the Western Hemisphere in strategic essential minerals. (Geol. 11.2 and 23.1 or permission.) Field trip fee, $5.

Mr. Schmidt

[32.1 Geology of Eastern North America]

A detailed survey of the geologic history, rock structures, and mineral deposits of central and eastern North America. Classroom discussion, outside reading in geologic literature, and reports. (Geol. 11.2.) Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

[32.2 Geology of Western North America]
Continuation of 32.1, with the same method. (Geol. 11.2.)

33.1 Optical Mineralogy Fall semester
Study of the optical properties of minerals found in igneous, metamorphic, and sedimentary rocks, by means of index liquids and rock thin sections. Limited to eight students. (Geol. 11.2, 23.1, and permission.) 4 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Welby

33.2 Petrology Spring semester
Study of the origin, mineral composition, and classification of igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks; megascopic study of hand specimens; microscopic study of thin sections. (Geology 11.2, 23.1; 33.1 recommended) 4 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Mr. Welby

41.1 Structural Geology Fall semester
Study of the primary structural features of igneous and sedimentary rocks and the nature and causes of the secondary features. (Geol. 11.1, 11.2.) Mr. Welby

41.2 Field Geology Spring semester
Geologic mapping and interpretation of geologic structures. (Geol. 41.1.)
Mr. Welby

44.2 Sedimentation Spring semester
The origin of sediments, the physical and chemical factors involved in their formation, principles of classification of sediments, interpretation of various sedimentary environments, techniques of analysis, and experiments in sedimentation. (Geol. 11.1, 11.2, Chem. 11, and permission) Lab. fee $3. Mr. Welby

50.1 and 50.2 Advanced Study or Honors Work Fall and Spring semesters
A course for majors and honor students in Geology. Staff

Geography

Required for a Major: 25.1, 25.2, 34.1 or 40.2, three of the four regional courses: 35.1, 35.2, 36.1, 36.2, and one additional semester course in Geography; Geology 21.1, 21.2; English 28.1, and Drama 11.1 or .2.

Cognate courses for a major in Geography range over a broad field and should be selected from other departments according to one's interest in Geography, and with the approval of the advisor.

Two years of a foreign language and a summer field camp are recommended for those applying to graduate school.

Required General Examination: Students will be prepared by conferences, reading lists, and field trips, during the last semester of the senior year.

25.1 Elements of Geography Fall semester
Study of the major components of the geographic landscape including climate, landforms, soils, vegetation, fauna, minerals, water resources, and spatial factors, and the interpretation and significance of their areal association. 3 hrs. lect., 2 hrs. lab. Mr. Illick

25.2 Economic Geography Spring semester
Regional and occupational study of the countries and peoples of the world. Understanding of national and occupational interrelationships is gained by an examination of population pressures, agriculture, mining, manufacturing, transportation, and trade. 3 hrs. lect., 2 hrs. lab., and field trips. (Geog. 25.1.) Field Trip Fee, $2. Mr. Siddell

34.1 Meteorology Fall semester
An introductory course covering the basic principles of weather analysis. Detailed study of atmospheric heat, humidity, pressure, winds, and clouds; and interpretation of weather maps, air masses, fronts, storms, weather coding and notation, will be developed by the laboratory method. (A high-school or college course in general physics is recommended.) Mr. Siddell

35.1 Geography of Latin America Fall semester
Physical and cultural factors basic to an understanding of the historical, social, and economic development of Central and South America. Geographic aspects of relationships to the United States and other countries. (Geog. 25.1.) Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Siddell

35.2 Geography of Europe and North Africa Spring semester
A regional analysis of the geographic landscape and its bearing upon the current economic, social, and political life of the countries of Europe and North Africa. (Geog. 25.1.) Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Mr. Siddell

[36.1 Geography of Asia, Africa, and the Australian Region]
Geographic evaluations of the major regions of these continents and the part they play in international affairs. Emphasis is placed on the Asiatic realm. (Geog. 25.1.) Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

[36.2 Geography of North America]
Geographic adjustments in various natural regions of the United States and Canada. Problems of agriculture, trade, politics, and life are related to environmental factors. (Geog. 25.1.) Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

40.2 Cartography Spring semester
The science and art of map-interpretation and construction. Training is given in compilation and drafting of maps, the construction of physiographic and block diagrams, terrain models, cartograms, land-use, and economic maps. Projections, field-sketching, and mapping from aerial photographs is also demonstrated. Field trips. Two hours of lecture and one laboratory a week. Fee $5. (Limited to 30 students). Mr. Illick

50.1 and 50.2 Advanced Study or Honors Work Fall and Spring semesters
A course arranged to suit the needs of students majoring in Geography. (Permission.) Mr. Illick, Mr. Siddell

Drafting

[27.1 Elements of Drafting]

28.1 Engineering Graphics Fall semester

Especially for students who are going to Columbia, M.I.T., or R.P.I. under the Technical School Plan. Conventions of practical drafting, including free hand and instrument drawings, dimensioning, working drawings. Methods for solving engineering problems through graphical procedures, including vector geometry, empirical curves, periodic curves, graphical calculus. (Math. 11.1 or 12.1) Instrument fee, $3.

28.2 Descriptive Geometry Spring semester

Descriptive Geometry presented by the direct method in the solution of problems relating to lines and planes; single-curved, double-curve, and warped surfaces; intersection and development of surfaces. (Draft. 28.1.) Instrument fee, $3.

[38.2 Surveying]

HOME ECONOMICS

Assistant Professor McCarthy
Miss Whearty

Required for a Major: 11.1, 11.2, 31.1, 31.2, 33.1, 35.1, plus a minimum of 12 semester hours. Students who are considering a major in this department should consult the chairman early, as certain required courses may not always be available. Cognates are usually selected from the fields of Science, Sociology, Economics, Psychology and the Arts. Required Sociology 41.2; Chemistry 10 or 11, Psychology 28.1.

Students planning to teach Home Economics should consult the Chairman of the department about further preparation which may be necessary.

Required General Examination: students will be prepared by seminars, conferences, discussion groups, reading lists and other guidance.

11.1 Foods Fall semester

Food composition, selection, preparation, and serving. Fundamental cookery processes and service of simple home meals. Complementary to 11.2 but may follow it. Laboratory fee, $10. Miss McCarthy

11.2 Nutrition Spring semester

Fundamentals of nutrition. A study of dietary needs and food values. Food selection and meal planning with emphasis on nutritive value. Complementary to 11.1 but may precede it. Miss McCarthy

21.1 Clothing and Textiles Fall semester

Survey of textiles; basic fibers, weaves, and construction of fabrics, with emphasis on consumer problems. Fundamental techniques of sewing; use of equipment, commercial patterns and standards of fitting through construction of garments. The aesthetic, hygienic and economic factors involved in clothing selection. Laboratory fee $3. Miss Whearty

21.2 Clothing and Textiles Spring semester

Continuation of 21.1. Intermediate techniques. (Home Ec. 21.1.) Laboratory fee $3. Miss Whearty

[22.1 Related Art]
A fundamental course in appreciation, including a study of color theory and of the art principles, both abstractly and in their application to problems relating to costume and to interiors. Laboratory fee, $2. Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59.

31.1 Advanced Foods Fall semester
Food preservation. The finer aspects of cookery and the application of scientific principles to cookery processes. (Home Ec. 11.1, 11.2; Chem. 10 or 11.) Laboratory fee, $10. Miss McCarthy

31.2 Advanced Foods Spring semester
Food demonstrations. Food marketing problems and consumer education. Experimental cookery problems. Laboratory fee, $10. Miss McCarthy

33.1 Household Administration Fall semester
Economic problems of the household; consumer buying; standards of living; income management; household budget and accounts; economic position of homemaker; scientific management; heating; lighting; plumbing; equipment. (Home Ec. 11.1 and 11.2 or Econ. 21 or permission.) Miss Whearty

34.2 House Planning and Furnishing Spring semester
Study of design principles as applied to houses; color schemes; house plans; grounds; period furniture; fundamental factors involved in choosing appropriate furnishings; (Home Ec. 21, 22.1, 33.1 or permission.) Miss Whearty

35.1 Home Management House Fall semester
One term's residence in the Home Management House, with daily participation in planning, buying, accounting, preparation and serving of meals, and care of the house. Conferences and reading assignments. (Permission.) Staff

41.1 Advanced Clothing and Design Fall semester
Study of historic costume in relation to design. Development of creative techniques in design through drafting patterns and draping on figures. Construction of garments requiring advanced techniques. Social and economic aspects of clothing. (Home Ec. 21.1, 21.2, desirable 22.1.) Laboratory fee, $5. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Miss Whearty

41.2 Advanced Clothing and Design Spring semester
Continuation of 41.1. (Home Ec. 41.1.) Laboratory fee, $5. Miss Whearty

42.1 Methods of Teaching Home Economics Fall semester
Objectives; subject matter as related to community needs; methods of presentation; courses of study; textbooks; equipment; problems of management and of departmental administration. (Five courses in Home Ec.) Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. Miss McCarthy

50.1 and 50.2 Special Fall and Spring semesters
Opportunity for senior majors to undertake advanced study according to their needs.

MATHEMATICS

Professor Ballou
Professor Bowker
Mr. Bielli
Mr. Daniels

Required for a major: 11.1, .2 or 12.1, .2, 21.1, .2, 33.1, .2, 43.1, .2, 46.1, 60.2, one other course in the Department or Physics 47.1, .2; Physics 21.1, .2. The selection of cognate courses will depend upon the student's purpose in majoring in mathematics.

The requirement of the General Examination will be satisfied by passing course 60.2 with its final examination.

11.1 Elementary Mathematical Analysis Fall semester
Designed to give a comprehensive survey of the most useful parts of elementary mathematical theory. Elements of college algebra, plane trigonometry, theory of equations, analytic geometry, differential and integral calculus woven into a unified logical structure. Staff

11.2 Elementary Mathematical Analysis Spring semester
Continuation of 11.1. (Math. 11.1.) Staff

12.1 Elementary Mathematical Analysis, Advanced Course Fall semester
Designed to meet the needs of students who have had four years of preparatory school mathematics including a complete course in plane trigonometry. Topics indicated above in 11.1 are extended in theory and application. Students for this course will be selected by the Department from those who register for Mathematics 11.1. Mr. Bielli

12.2 Elementary Mathematical Analysis, Advanced Course Spring semester
Continuation of 12.1. (Math. 12.1.) Mr. Bielli

21.1 Mathematical Analysis—Calculus I Fall semester
Fundamentals of the calculus. Limits and continuity, differentiation of the elementary functions with applications, the integral as the limit of a sum, the indefinite integral. (Math. 11.2 or 12.2.) Mr. Ballou

21.2 Mathematical Analysis—Calculus II Spring semester
Continuation of 21.1. Techniques of integration, applications of integration to geometrical and physical problems, related topics. (Math. 21.1.) Mr. Ballou

[22.1 Mathematics of Finance]
Annuities Certain. Offered in alternate years, to be given in 1958–59.

[22.2 Mathematics of Finance—Life Insurance]
Life Annuities. Offered in alternate years, to be given in 1958–59. (Math. 22.1.)

33.1 Mathematical Analysis—Calculus III Fall semester
The calculus of functions of more than one variable and an introduction to infinite series. Partial derivatives, multiple integrals, and their applications; Maclaurin and Taylor series. (Math. 21.2.) Mr. Daniels

33.2 Differential Equations Spring semester
A treatment of ordinary differential equations including the principal types of first and second order equations, simultaneous equations, and linear equations with constant coefficients. Special emphasis is placed on those forms of equations which are used in advanced work in the sciences. (Math. 21.2.) Mr. DANIELS

35.1 Statistical Method Fall semester
The fundamentals of statistical analysis. The organization and interpretation of statistical data, frequency distributions, measures of central tendency, moments of the distribution, linear trends, linear correlation. Modern automatic calculating machines are used. (Math. 11.2 or 12.2 or permission.) Offered in alternate years, not to be given in 1958–59. Computing machine fee, $6.00. (No student who takes Math. 35.1 may also take Econ. 36.1 or Psych. 27.1 for credit.) Mr. BOWKER

35.2 Mathematical Statistics Spring semester
The use of mathematical concepts by statisticians in the study and interpretation of data. Systems of frequency curves and moments, theory of large and small sampling, simple, partial and multiple correlation, measures of reliability, analysis of variance. (Math. 21.1 and 35.1.) Offered in alternate years, not to be given in 1958–59. Computing machine fee, $6.00. Mr. BOWKER

42.2 Teaching of Preparatory Mathematics Spring semester
A course for prospective teachers of secondary school mathematics. Consideration of the place and use of algebra, geometry, and trigonometry and the standards to be set in the teaching of these subjects; historical and biographical material, selection of texts and planning of courses, methods of presentation and explanation; modern trends. (Math. 21.2.) Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59.
Mr. BOWKER

43.1 Advanced Calculus I Fall semester
Further topics in the calculus taken from vector analysis, partial differentiation, line and surface integrals, the Stieltjes integral. (Math. 33.2.) Mr. BIELLI

43.2 Advanced Calculus II Spring semester
Continuation of 43.1. Power series, improper integrals, Fourier series, related topics. (Math. 43.1.) Mr. BIELLI

46.1 Survey of Mathematics Fall semester
The development of the number system, both historically and logically. Discussion of topics from modern algebra and number theory. Supplementary readings. (Math. 21.2.) Mr. BALLOU

60.2 Special Correlating Course Spring semester
A course exclusively for majors in mathematics designed to coordinate and extend the mathematics studied at Middlebury. This course with its final examination fulfills the General Examination requirement. Mr. BALLOU

PHYSICAL EDUCATION (MEN)

Associate Professor KELLY

Each man is given a yearly medical examination and periodic check-ups are made when necessary.

All physically fit freshman and sophomores are required to participate in organized activities at least two periods a week. Four terms of physical education are required for graduation. No academic credit is given for 11.1, 11.2, 12.1, or 12.2.

11.1 Physical Training Fall semester
Calisthenics, group games, athletics. Emphasis on development of agility, strength and endurance. Physical Tests. Required of freshmen. Staff

11.2 Physical Training Spring semester
Continuation of 11.1. Required of freshmen. Staff

12.1 Physical Training Fall semester
Individual exercise. Varsity and intramural sports. Class work. Required of Sophomores. Staff

12.2 Physical Training Spring semester
Continuation of 12.1. Required of Sophomores. Staff

21.1 Methods of Teaching Fall semester
Theory and practice. A study of gymnastic systems and methods of teaching, calisthenics, and apparatus exercises. Major sports officiating. Practice teaching. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. (Permission) Mr. Kelly

21.2 Organization of Play Spring semester
History, nature and function, and methods of teaching play, group games, individual and mass athletics, and combative contests. Practice teaching. Offered in alternate years; not to be given in 1958–59. (Permission) Mr. Kelly

[22.1 Safety in Physical Education]
Safety factors and liabilities for schools and communities. Open to men and women. Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59. (Permission)

[22.2 Minor Sports]
Theory and practice. Rules, fundamentals and methods of teaching. Touch football, volleyball, handball, badminton, softball, squash, tennis and golf. Minor sports officiating. Practice teaching. Offered in alternate years; to be given in 1958–59. (Permission)

PHYSICAL EDUCATION (WOMEN)

Assistant Professor Lick
Miss McGlynn
Mrs. Berger

Physical Education 15.1, 15.2, 25.1, 25.2 are required for graduation but carry no academic credit. A yearly medical examination is required of each woman participating in departmental activities. All women students are required to buy the standard gym outfit, costing approximately $27.

15.1 Physical Education Fall semester
Elective program in seasonal team and individual sports. One season of dance is required within 15.1 or 15.2. Required of Freshmen. Staff

15.2 Physical Education Spring semester
Elective program in seasonal team and individual sports. One season of dance is required within 15.1 or 15.2. Required of Freshmen. STAFF

25.1 Physical Education Fall semester
Elective program in seasonal team and individual sports. Required of Sophomores. STAFF

25.2 Physical Education Spring semester
Elective program in seasonal team and individual sports. Required of Sophomores. STAFF

[35.1 Coaching and Officiating]

[35.2 Physical Education for the Younger Child]

[46.1 Recreation Education]

[46.2 Recreation Education]

PHYSICS

Professor WISSLER
Associate Professor CHIH

Required for a Major: 21.1, 21.2, 31.1, 32.2, 34.1, 42.2, 47.1, 47.2; Chemistry 10 or 11, Mathematics 11, 21.

Required General Examination: students will be prepared by seminars, conferences, and reading lists.

Students wishing to become high school teachers of science with concentration in Physics should ask Mr. Wissler for details of the special program.

[11.1 and 11.2 Introductory General Physics]

21.1 General Physics Fall semester
Introduction to fundamental principles designed for students intending to major in Physics or to continue work in other scientific fields. (Math. 11, or permission.) 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Mr. WISSLER, Mr. CHIH

21.2 General Physics Spring semester
Continuation of 21.1. (Physics 21.1.) Hours, credits, and fee same as for 21.1. Mr. WISSLER, Mr. CHIH

31.1 Light Fall semester
Advanced course for those wishing more knowledge than can be obtained from GENERAL PHYSICS. Laws of reflection and of refraction with their applications; the wave theory of light; absorption, dispersion, interference, diffraction, and polarization. (Physics 21.2; Math. 21.2, or permission.) 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Mr. WISSLER

32.2 Electricity and Magnetism Spring semester
Advanced course covering principles and applications of electric and magnetic fields, measuring instruments and techniques. Kirchoff's laws, D C circuits and an introduction to A C circuits. (Physics 21.2; Math. 21 or permission.) 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—4 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Mr. Chih

34.1 Modern Physics Fall semester

Survey of recent discoveries in physics and theories based upon them: the electron, thermionics, photoelectric effect, X-rays, theory of spectra, atomic structure, radioactivity, nuclear physics and atomic energy. (Physics 21.2; Math. 21.2, or permission.) Mr. Chih

42.2 Astronomy Spring semester

The celestial sphere; astronomical instruments; determination of latitude, longitude, and time; the earth as an astronomical body; the moon's motions and physical characteristics; the sun's physical characteristics; revelations of the spectroscope; eclipses; planets, comets, stars, and nebulae. The College Observatory is used for observational work. (Physics 11.2, or 21.2.) § 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab.—3 credits. Laboratory fee, $5. Mr. Wissler

[43.1 Electronics]

47.1 Analytical Mechanics—Statics Fall semester

A discussion of the statics of particles and rigid bodies. Composition and resolution of forces, equilibrium of concurrent and parallel forces in a plane, general cases of forces in a plane, concurrent forces in space, and the general case for forces in space. The methods of moments, projection, sections, and members are employed. Centers of gravity, centroid and static friction. (Physics 21.2; Math. 21.2 or permission). Mr. Chih

47.2 Analytical Mechanics—Dynamics Spring semester

The principles of dynamics, rectilinear translation, curvilinear translation and rotation; simple harmonic motion, projectile motion, moment of inertia and impact. (Physics 47.1.) Mr. Chih

The Department of Military Science and Tactics

Lieutenant Colonel William W. Saunders, Artillery, U. S. Army
Professor of Military Science and Tactics (PMS&T)
Major Joseph R. Sain, Armor, U. S. Army
Captain John W. Goldsmith, Infantry, U. S. Army
Captain Eli L. Veazey, Infantry, U. S. Army
Captain William F. Turner, Armor, U. S. Army
Assistant Professors of Military Science and Tactics

Master Sergeant Frank H. Preble — Master Sergeant Jack P. Hogue
Master Sergeant Albert R. Tobin — Sergeant First Class Wilson E. Noyes
Sergeant First Class Kenneth C. Elliott
Assistant Instructors in Military Science and Tactics
Other Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers assigned

A senior unit ROTC, organized under the provisions of the National Defense Act of 1916 and amendments thereto, aims to prepare students for a commission in the Regular Army and the Army Reserve of the United States Army in the arm or service to which assigned. A two-year basic and a two-year advanced course are offered.

The Basic Course

A two-year course is required of all male students except the following:

1. Veterans
   (1) A student who has served on active duty in the Armed Forces for six months will be excused from the Freshman Basic Course.
   (2) A student who has served on active duty in the Armed Forces for one year will be excused from the entire Basic Course.

b. Former ROTC students
   (1) A student who has successfully completed three or more years of the Junior ROTC program at an accredited ROTC institution will be admitted to the Sophomore Basic Course upon presentation of a military training certificate.
   (2) A student who has successfully completed the first year of the ROTC Basic Course at another accredited ROTC institution will be admitted to Sophomore Basic Course.

c. Transfers from other institutions into the Junior year.

d. Non-citizens.

e. Students exempted at the discretion of the President of the College and the Professor of Military Science and Tactics for appropriate reasons.

Students may be excused from drill by the College physician for medical reasons.

The class meets three periods each week, with a minimum of 90 hours in each academic year. Uniforms, arms, and equipment are furnished the student by the Department of the Army at no cost to the individual.

11.1 and 11.2 Freshman Basic (Military Science I)
Organization of the Army and ROTC; American military history; individual weapons and marksmanship; school of the soldier and exercise of command. Two hours of class, one hour of drill. One credit per semester.

21.1 and 21.2 Sophomore Basic (Military Science II)
Crew-served weapons and gunnery; map and aerial photograph reading; school of the soldier and exercise of command. Two hours of class, one hour of drill. One credit per semester. (MST 11.1 and 11.2 or equivalent service credit).

The Advanced Course

This is a two-year course elective to juniors, and carries three hours credit per semester or twelve hours for the full four semesters. Members of this course are selected by the Professor of Military Science and Tactics and the President of the College. Ex-service personnel may apply in the spring of their sophomore year. Their selection is dependent upon the approval of the officers named above. Draft deferment will be authorized for those who qualify.

Students enrolled in this course will receive a daily subsistence allowance not to exceed the value of the garrison ration for the period that classes are scheduled. This subsistence allowance is paid monthly and is established each fiscal year. During recent years it has averaged $27.00 per month. The class meets five periods per week with a minimum of one hundred fifty hours per academic year. Each unexcused absence forfeits two days' pay or approximately $1.80.

Advanced course students receive a regulation Army officer uniform purchased by the College, which becomes the student's upon graduation. The Government pays $100.00 towards the cost of the uniform and the remaining approximately $30.00 is paid by the student.

Attendance at one summer camp of six weeks duration is mandatory. During such attendance the student is paid at the pay scale of an enlisted man of the Army of the first grade. Mileage at five cents per mile is paid to and from camp. Students will attend camp between the junior and senior academic years, but deferment may be made, for cogent reason, when approved by the Professor of Military Science and Tactics and the Commanding General, First Army.

On successful completion of the course, the student is normally commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, U. S. Army Reserve. Outstanding military students are eligible for direct commission in the Regular Army upon graduation. This course offers a general military science curriculum, which means that the cadet will be given general Army training without reference to any one arm or service. Prior to commissioning, assignment to a branch will be made based upon the needs of the Service and the individual's desires and capabilities. Training is directed primarily toward a commission in one of the combat arms—Infantry, Artillery, or Armor. Students whose academic program has particularly qualified them may be offered a commission in one of the technical services—Signal, Engineer, Ordnance, Military Intelligence and others.

Students who enroll in the Advanced Course are required to complete both years; and if tendered a commission, are required to accept it, as a prerequisite for graduation from the College.

31.1 and 31.2 First Year Advanced Course (Military Science III)
Small unit tactics and communications; organization, function and mission of the arms and services; military teaching methods; leadership; school of the soldier and exercise of command. Four hours of class, one hour of drill. Three credits per semester. (MST 21.1 and 21.2 or equivalent service credit).

41.1 and 41.2 Second Year Advanced Course (Military Science IV)
Logistics; operations; military administration and personnel management; service orientation; school of the soldier and exercise of command. Three credits per semester. (MST 31.1 and 31.2).

Scholarship Funds

The Cecile Child Allen Student Aid Fund. $20,000. The income to be awarded to one or more Junior or Senior women who need financial aid, and who are "the kind of women that Middlebury would be proud to see represent the College in the outside world." Awards are made under the authority of the women members of the Board of Trustees.

The Cornelia W. Bailey Fund. $33,500. Established in 1929 under her will for students of the Protestant faith, residing in Vermont.

The Baldwin Fund. $28,122. Received in 1871 from the estate of John C. Baldwin, Esq., of Orange, N. J., for men.

The Cesare Barbieri Endowment Fund, $5,000.

The Joseph Battell Scholarships. $500 annually, for young women of Addison County.

The Elbert S. and Anna H. Brigham Scholarship Fund. $28,653.75. Established in 1953. Income to be used for a "Deserving man or woman who is a resident of the State of Vermont." Tenable for four consecutive years.

The Charitable Society Fund. $4,012. Established in 1832, for men.

The Annie L. Cox Scholarship Fund. $2,500. Established for "a worthy student manifesting decided ability in some line of study, preferably a student of Italian parentage."

The Wilfred E. Davison Scholarship Fund. $1,632. Established in 1936 by bequest of Frank P. Davison of Cabot, for men.

The Dr. Ralph B. DeLano Scholarship Fund of $10,000. Established in 1950. Subject to an annuity.

Delta Kappa Epsilon Scholarship Fund. $4,556., the income to be awarded to a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity at Middlebury College.

The Erwin Ewald Drost Memorial Fund. $250. Established in 1944 by Mrs. Marguerite Jahr, Mrs. Winnie Wiesenthal, Mrs. Clara Comstock, and Miss Emma C. Drost, in memory of their brother, Erwin Ewald Drost, class of 1924.

Dean S. Edmonds Scholarship Fund. $27,196.65. Established in 1953. "Income from fund be used by Middlebury College as it shall determine as financial aid to students at Middlebury College, giving preference to male students and to students of the sciences, more particularly physics, including electronics."

The Fairbanks Scholarships. $2,000. Established by Thaddeus Fairbanks, Esq., of St. Johnsbury, for men.

The Charles A. Field Scholarship. $300, given by the village of Proctor, "as a memorial of regard for Fletcher Dutton Proctor and of gratitude to him, and for courtesies received at the hands of other residents of said village."

Rollo J. Francisco Scholarship Fund. $17,919.70. Established under the will of the late Rollo J. Francisco of Rutland, Vermont in 1951.

Eben J. Fullam Scholarship, $10,000. Given in memory of Eben J. Fullam of the class of 1895 by Mrs. E. J. Fullam of Springfield, Vermont.

Alice Brooks Fuller Scholarship Fund. $15,000, "to aid worthy women preferably from Worcester County, Massachusetts."

The William W. Gay Fund. $5,000. Established in 1929 by the gift of Mrs. Frederic F. Van de Water, Jr., in memory of her father, William W. Gay, class of 1876.

Joel B. Harris Student Loan Fund. $23,000, made available in 1937 under an annuity contract with Charles P. Harris, for the benefit of students of the Men's College.

Benjamin L. Haydon Scholarship Fund. $56,831.12. Bequest under the will of Elsie Haydon Cornell. "Income to be used by Middlebury College for scholarships." Benjamin L. Haydon graduated from Middlebury College in 1897.

The Charles B. R. Hazeltine Fund. $14,043. Established in 1923 "for assisting worthy students."

The Waldo H. Heinrichs Scholarship Fund. $3,390.32. Established in 1956, the income to be awarded to a man or woman in the sophomore year for use in the Junior year.

The John A. Howe Scholarships. $3,000. Bequeathed by John A. Howe, Esq., class of 1853; the income first available for his descendants, and then under certain conditions for students from Poultney.

The Frederica V. Jones Scholarship. $10,000. Established in 1950. The gift of Vanderbilt Webb and Cyril H. Jones. Income to be annually used as a scholarship for the benefit of any boy or girl who may in the judgment of the college authorities "be deserving of this award."

The Kappa Delta Rho Scholarship Fund. $1,375., for worthy male students of the two upper classes majoring in science or mathematics, with preference being given to members of the Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity.

The Sanford H. Lane Memorial Scholarship Fund. $2,000. Established in 1945, for students of the Men's College.

The Ted Lang, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund. $11,000. To be awarded annually to a man in his senior year.

The Literary Fund. $740. Established in 1835, for men.

The Levi P. Morton Scholarship. $2,000. Established by Hon. Levi Parsons Morton of New York City, for men.

The New Jersey Student Aid Fund. $400. For men from New Jersey.

The Penfield Scholarship. $1,000. Established by Allen Penfield, Esq., of Burlington, for men.

The Dana G. Pierce Scholarship Fund. $8,012.50. Established in 1951. "For men students from Rutland High School."

William H. Porter Memorial Scholarship. $10,000. Income to be used for a tuition scholarship. Established by Helen Porter Pryibil in 1950.

The President's Purse. $11,179.38. Established by Charles M. Swift, Esq., the income to be disbursed at the discretion of the President.

The Fredrika Proctor Fund. $25,000. Established in 1956, the income to be awarded as a named scholarship, to an undergraduate studying French, by the Scholarship Committee.

The Justin M. Ricker Scholarship Fund. $2,064.69. Established in 1956 by Justin M. Ricker.

The Eleanor S. Ross Scholarship Fund. $5,912.60. Established by Middlebury Alumnae Association in memory of the late Dean Eleanor S. Ross Thomas. Awarded annually to a Middlebury Senior woman and based equally on the scholarship, need, and all-around merit of the recipient.

The John W. Rowell Fund. $2,000. Established by the late Chief Justice Rowell.

The Bezeliel Smith Fund. $1,000. Established in 1893, for men.

The Jonathan Coleman Southmayd Scholarship Fund. $28,600. Established by Hon. Redfield Proctor, in 1922, its income first available for students (men or women) from Proctor.

The A. P. Stafford Fund. $1,000. Established "to assist needy students from Wallingford to an education."

The John Wolcott Stewart Fund. $17,154.69. Established in 1956 by Philip B. Stewart in memory of his father, the income to be awarded to one or more male students in need of financial aid, who, having completed one or more years' courses have shown themselves to be of good character and worthy of continued enrollment in College.

The Subscription of 1852. $25,000. For men.

Agnes Warner Sunderland Fund. $3,000. Established by Edwin S. S. Sunderland, Esq., class of 1911, the income from which is first available for the assistance of students from Cornwall.

The Arthur Gould Tasheira Fund. $25,000, the income to be used as far as possible to provide scholarships for worthy and deserving students.

Thomas G. Thompson Scholarship Fund. $3,500. In memory of Frank Genung Thompson and Mrs. Alma C. Dow to provide two equal scholarships, one for a young man preparing for the protestant Christian ministry, and the other a young woman.

The Ludger J. Toussant Fund. $420. Established by the class of 1920 in memory of their classmate—Ludger J. Toussant—killed in World War I.

The Herbert K. Twitchell Fund. $2,000. Established in 1929 by a bequest received under the will of Mr. Twitchell for students from Vermont, preferably Addison County.

The James M. Tyler Fund. $1,000. For students from Vermont.

The Waldo Fund. $10,000. Established in 1864 by bequest of Mrs. Catherine E. Waldo of Boston, for men.

Bessie Clarinda Verder '98 Memorial Fund for Women Students. $1,000. Established by Blanche Avaline Verder in memory of her sister.

The Warren Fund, $3,000. Given in 1835 by bequest of Deacon Isaac Warren of Charlestown, Mass., and its income applied in payment of college bills of those who are preparing for the Gospel ministry.

The Asa Wheelock Scholarships Fund. $5,000. Established under the will of Charles B. R. Hazeltine of Arlington, Mass., the income first available for protestant students from the town of Wardsboro, and then from other small country towns in the State.

The Emma Willard Scholarship. $2,000, established in 1895 by the Emma Willard Association, for the benefit of deserving young women. The holder of this scholarship receives a supplementary scholarship bringing the total up to $350. For Seniors only.

The Harriet B. Winsor Scholarship Fund. $10,000. Established under the will of Harriet B. Winsor, of Springfield, Mass. in 1950. One-half income to provide a scholarship for boys and one-half income to provide a scholarship for girls.

The Windham County Congregational Scholarship Fund. $2,000. Established in 1951. "Income first available for students proposed by the Conference."

The Charles Baker Wright Scholarships. $50,000 established in 1949. Income from fund to provide two full tuition scholarships to be awarded annually to a man and a woman in the senior class.

The Marion L. Young Scholarship Fund. $5,000. Established by the Middlebury Alumnae Association. $125 awarded annually since 1940 to the freshman women outstanding in scholarship, personality, and athletics.

General Student Scholarship Fund. $40,250. The aggregate of gifts from friends to be used in making loans to students, originating with a gift from Prof. Wm. W. Eaton of $25 in 1911. Income from Fund may be used for scholarships.

The Henry Francis Barrows Scholarship Fund. $1,000. Annually from the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company as trustee under the will of Fanny Barrows Reed.

The Chi Psi Fraternity Scholarship. $200. Awarded to a member of the Chi Psi Fraternity who has completed at least five semesters in residence, and who has exhibited promise in scholarship and qualities of leadership, and wholesome influence and character in the activities of his college and fraternity.

The Grace M. Ellis Memorial Scholarship Fund. Awarded each year to a student from Worcester (Mass.) County. For details, write to Mrs. C. Henry Nyberg, Chairman, Scholarship Committee, Worcester County Alumnae Association, 1 Kosta St., Worcester, Mass.

The Harry M. Fife Memorial Fund. Established in 1950 in memory of Harry M. Fife, Professor of Economics, 1925–1950.

The French Government Scholarship. $300. Awarded annually to a woman majoring in French and living at the Château, on the basis of scholarship, character and personality.

The Agnes M. Lindsay Awards. $5,000. Annually from the Agnes M. Lindsay Trust, allocated by the College Trustees half to scholarships for men and half for women.

The John E. Stetson Scholarship Fund. $5,000. Established by Mrs. Minnie Ellen Blodgett Stetson in memory of her husband John E. Stetson, class of 1900. The fund is deposited with the Trustees of Public Funds for the town of Springfield: The income to be used for a student of the town of Springfield who wishes to attend college, preferably Middlebury.

The Albert Henry Wiggin Memorial Scholarship. $850. Established by the Albert H. and Jessie D. Wiggin Foundation. A four-year full tuition scholarship awarded to a deserving man.

The H. Michael Wilson Memorial Scholarship. $200. Awarded to a male student for his fifth or sixth semester in residence, preferably a member of Alpha Sigma Psi, who has demonstrated his financial need by some self-help and who has shown promise in scholarship, qualities of leadership, and a wholesome influence and character through loyalty to and concern for the welfare of his College or Fraternity. Given in memory of H. Michael Wilson by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilson.

The Philip Capell Wright Memorial Music Scholarship. $125 annually: divided, half for vocal and half for instrumental. Given in memory of Engisn Philip C. Wright, '40, by his parents Mrs. and Mrs. Philip A. Wright and his sister, Ellen Wright King.

The Sylvia Westin Wurts Memorial Scholarship Fund. Awarded each year to a woman student from the Hartford, Conn. area. Apply to Miss Virginia A. Knox, 2163 Main St., Glastonbury, Conn.

Student Loan Funds

Jacob Abbott Loan Fund. $5,555.87. Established in 1952 by Ernest A. Turner of Plattsburgh, New York. "Income to be used for loans to worthy and needy students to be repaid after graduation, with interest after graduation."

Reid L. Carr and Eleanor F. Carr Revolving Loan Fund, $10,480. "To help deserving students."

Hazeltine Student Loan Fund. $2,500, received in 1923 under the will of Chas. P. R. Hazeltine and his sister, Harriet S. Hazeltine, of Arlington, Mass., "the income only to be used as a loan fund in assisting students in Middlebury College."

Elam R. Jewett Student Loan Fund. $3,000, received in 1923 from a friend. "The principal to be safely invested, the income and accretions to be loaned, under certain conditions, to men students of the College."

Martha Jewett Nash Student Loan Fund. $3,000, received in 1923 from a friend "the principal to be safely invested, the income and accretions to be loaned, under certain conditions, to women students of the College."

William H. Porter Student Loan Fund. $10,140, an unconditional legacy received in 1927 under the will of William H. Porter of New York. By action of the trustees it was made the William H. ALUMNI

The Associated Alumni, one of the oldest organizations of its type in America, was established in 1824. The preamble to the constitution stated the purpose of the organization in 33 words that could not be better chosen today: "To revive the pleasing recollections of academic life—to cherish a laudable zeal for the advancement of literature and science and particularly for the prosperity of our Alma Mater this association is formed." A separate Alumnae Association for women graduates was formed in 1912.

Both alumni and alumnae hold annual business meetings at the College. Both groups are organized by districts, and regional meetings are held during the year. Although the purpose of these meetings is largely social, the members give active support in forwarding plans and projects of the College. Joint meetings of alumni and alumnae are held in many localities. In communities where the alumnae have separate organizations, meetings are held as frequently as once a month, when programs of educative and social interest are presented.

The business of the Associated Alumni and Alumnae Association is conducted through the offices of the respective secretaries at the College. Biographical information and addresses may be secured through them. An edition of the General Catalogue containing biographical sketches of alumni and alumnae published in 1950 is available. The News Letter, the Middlebury quarterly magazine, is mailed to all alumni and alumnae.

The following places are centers for alumni and alumnae activities: Burlington, Montpelier, Middlebury, and Springfield, Vermont; Boston, Springfield, and Worcester, Massachusetts; Bridgeport, New Haven, and Hartford, Connecticut; Claremont and Concord, New Hampshire; Albany, Buffalo, Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Rochester, Syracuse, New York City, Long Island, and Utica, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Los Angeles and San Francisco, California; Washington, D. C.; Chicago, Illinois; Cleveland, and Columbus, Ohio; Detroit, Michigan; Minneapolis, Minn.; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Dallas, Texas; Denver, Colorado; and Montreal, Canada.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

LANGUAGE SCHOOLS

The Middlebury College Summer Schools of Language provide a unique opportunity for combining graduate study with a summer spent in the heart of the Green Mountains. The Schools of French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish are situated on the college campus; and the School of English at Bread Loaf. Following these, a two-week Writers' Conference is held at Bread Loaf.

The Middlebury College Foreign Language Schools were pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern foreign languages in this country. The central purpose of the schools is to make the language a subjective element in the life of the student by means of close association with the faculty of native instructors, a well-balanced social and academic program, and exclusive use of the foreign language in and out of the classroom.

The School of English offers a selection of courses in literary history, the art of writing, and critical analysis, given by nationally famous instructors. The Writers' Conference provides sound and experienced help and criticism for men and women who desire to write or are interested in the practical background of literature.

During the academic year, the Middlebury College Graduate Schools of French in France and Spanish in Spain provide indispensable guidance in the complexities of advanced study at a foreign university, with the opportunity to earn a Middlebury Master's degree by a year of such foreign study under expert supervision.

Bulletins and further information may be secured from the Language Schools Office, Middlebury College.
